

Ora Pro Nobis Candy Boxes

A SWEET & PRAYERFUL ACTIVITY
FOR THE HOLY SOULS
IN THE MONTH OF NOVEMBER

Supplies:

- + 30 pieces of candy per box (leftover All Saints candy is great for this)
- + black treat boxes or bags
- + white foam sticker crosses or "Ora Pro Nobis" box/bag labels
- + color pencils, crayons, or another media of their choice
- + calendar (create your own or use free printable)
- + list of departed family, friends, religious
- + particular prayer(s) to be offered

Directions:

Place a cross or label on the front of each box and fill with 30 pieces of candy.

Have the children prepare and decorate their calendars. Write the name of a departed soul on the calendar for each day of the month. Perhaps even include a day for the "Most Forgotten Soul."

Each day of the month, after the child has offered a prayer for the departed soul listed, they may take one (1) piece of candy, or they may leave it in the box as an additional sacrifice for the departed soul!

The intention is to encourage prayers and sacrifices for the Church Suffering in a sweet and tangible way!

May the souls of the faithful departed rest in peace!
