

Feasibility Study Update: Parishioner Reactions

The homilies during weekend masses on October 17th and 18th were an update about a study into a possible building project being completed by a parish committee. Here are some parishioner comments about the update provided.

"The different means of communication used to update parishioners on the future building project is really good. I am especially happy that input from parishioners was sought during the process. The greatest resource at St. Gabriel is people, and a good effort has been made to solicit feedback from us."

- Pam Schmitt

"We thought Fr. Tim and John Borgen made an excellent presentation on the future building project. What a good idea to team up like that! They reached more people at Mass on Saturday and Sunday than they would have at any scheduled meeting."

- Chuck and Karen Hale
