

What I'm grateful for . . .

- How God touches our hearts with his unconditional perfect love so that we can respond to Him fully in praise and thanksgiving.
- The Prayer Partners who are growing spiritually together.
- For all those who completed and sent in their Stewardship Commitment Form. It's not too late to send them in.
- The stewardship of our service: how we utilize our gifts and talents to serve the Lord in this parish and other ways. Many good people are doing good things.
- The generous sharing of our financial resources that helps us carry out our parish mission.

Announcements . . .

- Even though public masses are not being celebrated, I am still celebrating mass for your mass intentions.
- Let me know of any parishioners who are hospitalized, in a nursing home, or are in need.
- Please send in your completed Stewardship Commitment Form if you haven't already done so.
