

Coming – Fall 2019

St. Peter Bible Study Group

Deacon Clarke Cochran

Topic: The Gospel according to Matthew

During 2020, most Gospel passages proclaimed at Sunday Mass will be from the Gospel according to St. Matthew. To prepare to hear, understand, and meditate on the Liturgy of the Word, the St. Peter Bible Study Group will read this Gospel during the fall. We let the Gospel text speak to us and we respond. Our approach is to read a certain number of chapters for each week and then to share our insights, impressions, and questions with each other.

Time: Sunday morning, 10:15-11:15

Location: Ignatius House, Second Floor (Haughey Room)

Dates and Outline:

September 15: Introduction to Matthew; Chapters 1-2

September 29 (Peter Judge): Proclamation of the Kingdom -- Chapters 3-7

October 20: Mission in Galilee & Opposition -- Chapters 8-13

October 27: Jesus, the Kingdom & the Church – Chapters 14-18

November 24: Judea and Jerusalem – Chapters 19-25

December 8: Passion and Resurrection – Chapters 26-28
