Event Details

The Kennedy Lecture is an annual event that is the gift of Thomas and Richard Kennedy, in memory of their parents, Beth and Joan Kennedy. This series is one that challenges us and to stimulate thinking by engaging prominent persons in the field of religion and ethics. On January 30, 2021, Joan Rosenbaum, Executive Director of Jesuit Refugee Service/USA, will be our guest lecturer on "Who are our brothers and sisters? Being the Good Samaritan". The Saturday morning lecture will be available on Zoom and interactive.
