LENTEFAQ (FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS)

What's the difference between fasting and abstinence?

Abstinence is really abstinence from meat, i.e., to abstain or refrain from eating meat. Fasting means not eating any food at all.

I find it truly difficult to go all day without eating (i.e., fasting), what should I do?

If fasting on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday doesn't allow you to function properly at work or school or parenting; or, it makes you dizzy or weak; or, you have a medical condition which requires you to eat regularly (e.g., diabetes), then you have several options:

- 1) Eat just one full meal for the day; or,
- 2) If you really need to, eat one full meal and two very light meals; or,
- 3) Substitute some other act of penance or charity.

On days of abstinence from meat (Ash Wednesday and Fridays in Lent), what is meant by 'meat'?

The actual flesh and organs of warm blooded animals or of birds. So, meat would be steak, hamburger, pork, ham, lamb, salami, sausage, chicken, and turkey (the color of the meat doesn't matter). However, fish and cold blooded animals (frog, clams, etc...) are not meat. Also dairy and meat by-products (milk, cheese, etc...) or condiments and sauces with meat fat (some pasta sauces, e.g.,) are not meat.

Who is required to follow these rules of fasting and abstinence?

Fasting: 18 to 59 year-olds. Abstinence: 14 year-olds and older. But keep in mind, that those younger and older can try to keep these disciplines if they choose to, and adapt them to their circumstance.

I forgot that it was a day of abstinence and ate meat. I also forgot it was a day of fasting and ate several full meals. Do I have to go to confession?

No. First of all, you can't sin accidentally. Sin comes about from purposely choosing evil.

Secondly, failure to perform one particular act of the Church's communal penance isn't an act of grave evil. Failure to do penance, to pray, and to be charitable, over all in one's life... that is a seriously grave problem.

Thirdly, these penitential acts of fasting and abstinence are the least significant of the three disciplines of Lent. The other two disciplines are prayer and charity. It is a failure to pray and to be charitable which is a worthier subject matter of confession than accidentally eating meat on Friday.

And finally, if you forget to do one of these Lenten disciplines, you are free to substitute. Choose a different day. Choose a different penance. And you may do this without getting dispensation from a priest or the bishop.

I'm going to a St. Patrick's Day party on a Friday in Lent. Can I eat the traditional corned beef? Do I need to get a dispensation?

You may eat the corned beef without getting a dispensation. Simply substitute a different day for abstinence, or, a different penance or act of charity. You have the authority to make those decisions for yourself without seeking dispensation from any clergy.

I'm doing an additional, personal act of penance for all of Lent (e.g., giving up a treat like ice cream). Should I also do this on Sundays?

You may, if you want, but you don't have to. Sundays aren't counted in the "forty days of Lent." The reason for this is that Sundays are festive days of celebration, and therefore, not penitential days.
