Council 1883 is celebrating their 100 Year Anniversary in 2017! There are lots of fun activities planned this year to celebrate this milestone.

Our Council, along with the Stewardship Committee, will be hosting a Family Picnic on July 23rd after the 10:30 mass at the Stutsman County Fairgrounds. This is the first planned event to honor our council's 100 Year Anniversary. There will be picnic food and fun games for the kids. All parish members are welcome. Please mark your calendars and make sure to join us.

Watch your mail for an invitation to the KC Gala which will be held on September 8th at 6:00 PM. This is the second event planned to celebrate our 100 Year Anniversary. Plan to dress up and enjoy the famous KC prime rib, live music, and great company. Seating is limited so please send in your RSVP as soon as you can. All paid members and their spouses will be invited.

The third event planned to celebrate our 100 Year Anniversary is an honorary member dinner which will be held on November 4th. Watch the news letter for more information on this event.

Grand Knight's Corner

I am excited to serve as the new Grand Knight of Council 1883. This is an exciting time to take over since we are in the middle of our 100 Year Anniversary. I look forward to serving as your Grand Knight, and am honored to have this opportunity.

As I take over this position I am realizing how much work is needed to lead this great organization, and I would like to recognize Rod Heilman for all the hours of service and dedication he has given to our organization. He is dedicated to our council, and I know he will continue to be a big asset to the Knight of Columbus in the upcoming years. Thanks Rod!

Vivat Jesus! Wade Senger
