Nancy Carlson Event—Just a Week Away!

- I hope all our current families are planning to be here next Thursday for our Nancy Carlson visit. Please reach out to our visitors and make them feel welcome. This event is both a way to enhance our writing curriculum as well as invite new families into our building. Thanks for your help in making it a great success!

I am still looking for a few parents who would be willing to assist in the cafeteria that evening with the craft and in serving cookies.

No School on Monday, Jan. 15

Just a reminder that there will not be school next Monday due to Martin Luther King, Jr. Day.

Yearbooks

Today we are sending home the ordering materials for the St. Philip School yearbook. These are $10 each and are beautiful, full-color books. We appreciate our parent volunteers who put many hours into creating it—Tammy Joyer and Kolette Duscher. Thank you!

Virtus Safe Environment Training

There will be safe environment training tomorrow, Jan. 12 in Winsted at 7:00. This is a really close option -35 min. away. If you haven't gotten trained yet, please sign up! Chaperones just need to complete the live training once.

Catholic United Financial Schools Raffle—Kick-off is Tomorrow!

We will kick off our School Raffle tomorrow after Mass. If your family plans to sell tickets, you simply need to contact the office and we will send home the number of books you request. Any checks must be made payable to ST. PHILIP'S since we receive 100% profit on this fundraiser.

Families who have not yet fulfilled the family fundraising commitment, please use this opportunity to meet your goal. These tickets are generally very easy to sell—great prizes and only $5 each! Keep in mind that St. Philip's receives 100% of what we sell, so this is a terrific fundraiser for us!
