Sacred Heart of Jesus Enthronement Checklist

Through the enthronement ceremony, families recognize Christ's rule over their lives. They do this by placing an image of His Sacred Heart in a place of honor in their homes, renewing their commitment to be His faithful disciples.

PREPARE SPIRITUALLY

- Pray the Sacred Heart Novena June 3-11
- Receive the sacrament of reconciliation

ATTEND MASS

- Attend Mass on the solemnity of the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus, Friday, June 12

SELECT AN IMAGE OF THE SACRED HEART

- Limited-edition prints of the Sacred Heart will be distributed at Masses in the Diocese of Knoxville on June 12.
- Digital copies of the prints will be available on dioknox.org starting June 15.
- You may also select any image of the Sacred Heart of your choosing, either purchasing a new image or using one you already have.

SELECT A PLACE OF HONOR

- Choose a prominent place in your home to display the image of the Sacred Heart: a living room wall, a side table, or fireplace mantel are all suitable places.
- Identify a small table on which to place the image before the ceremony. If possible this should be in a different room so that the image can be carried in procession to the place of honor.

ENTHRONE JESUS AS KING OF YOUR LIFE

- Select a priest, a deacon, or the head of the household to lead the ceremony.
- Invite friends and family to attend.
- Perform the enthronement ceremony. Text for the ceremony can be found at dioknox.org.

CONTINUE IN PRAYER

- Allow the Sacred Heart of Jesus to reign in your life with daily prayer and devotion. Resources can be found at dioknox.org.
