Join the Farmington Historical Society for a performance by Edith Wilson, the widow of President Woodrow Wilson, as portrayed by Jessica Michna. Prohibition is the law of the land as the new year of 1925 begins. The decade will become known as the "Roaring Twenties". Mrs. Wilson has greeted another New Year quietly after the death of the President in February 1924. The "war to end all wars" is now a memory. Edith Galt Wilson sits alone now, answering the hundreds of letters of condolence.

The program will be presented at 1:00pm on Saturday, March 14, at the St. Michael's Church Hall. It is free and open to the public. The program will be approximately one hour. Jessica Michna is widely known for her riveting portrayals of First Ladies, notable women of history and fictitious characters.
