Jesus Christ is Risen. Alleluia!!

As we renew & celebrate the central mystery of our Faith, we recall our Lord's Passion, death, resurrection and ascension in a new light. I pray that this Easter our faith will continue to grow and develop in our understanding through our Lenten experiences. That our prayers, sacrifices, alms and acts of charity and self-denial will continue throughout the year as a witness of our love for Christ and His Church. The purpose of the 'miserable' Lent was to strengthen us to live a life closer to Christ and to each other. A 'miserable' Lent leads us to a life lived united in Faith, united in Hope and united in Charity. May the Risen Lord bless each of you this Easter and help us all remain united to Christ, to His Church and to each other.

Know you are in my prayers now and always,
Fr. Bernard Kimminau
