BISHOP'S APPEAL FOR VOCATIONS (BAV) – On Oct. 6 & Oct. 7,

Seminarians of the Diocese of Lincoln will speak after the Masses regarding the importance of supporting the men studying for the priesthood at St. Gregory the Great Seminary. This year, there are 42 young men discerning a call to priesthood and at a cost of $36,566 per seminarian (all but two college level seminarians pay $5,000/year), this year's vocations budget is more than $1.5 million. This figure represents 25% of the diocesan operating budget for the year. Through the Bishop's Appeal for Vocations, everyone in the diocese has the opportunity to participate in the future of the Church by contributing to the education of men who may one day be priests in our parishes. Please go to the Church basement and find your pledge/donation card for the BAV. Complete your pledge card and leave it with the volunteer. You can give online through the diocesan website (www.lincolndiocese.org/diocese/giving/bishop-s-appeal-for-vocations). A text-to-give option is available by texting "Give $(amount)" to 531-233-1022. (Information is also available in the Oct. 3 edition of the Register). Our goals for the year are $15,300 for St. Patrick, $400 for St. Ann and $720 for Sacred Heart Parishes. The Bishop's Appeal for Vocations supplies some of the cost of the expenses for our seminarians, our future priests, in their studies, training, and formation for the priesthood. Please be a part of the important appeal. Thank you for your generosity.

Amen.
