St. Patrick Parish Mission 2020

FEBRUARY 3-6 – 6:30PM

A Parish Mission is a series of presentations that are intended to challenge, support and uplift our spiritual journeys, something like being on a retreat spread out over several days. The Mission is for everyone, young and old, for those with many questions or only a few, and for those just starting, recently returning, or deeply engaged in their faith journey. The mission will be rooted in the richness of our Catholic heritage. Each session has a different theme, but all center on one's personal faith journey, connecting our faith to everyday life. We will gather together at the Cross to pray, sing, listen and receive an invitation to grow, and then disperse to bring Jesus' love and mercy into the world through our actions. SEE ATTACHED FLYER FOR DETAILS OR VISIT WWW.STPATRICKWENTZVILLE.ORG/MISSION.

COME TO ONE OR ALL EVENING EVENTS AND BRING A FRIEND

To make it easier for entire families to attend, there will be free child care available every evening. Just contact Kathleen Boedeker before the event at 636-561-0071 or kboedeke@gmail.com and let Kathleen know how many children you will bring and their ages. We will also have Children's Liturgy of the Word (CLW) for children ages six to nine. Please contact Becky Schoolcraft before the event at becky.schoolcraft@yahoo.com to let her know if your children will be attending CLW so the team can plan.
