Unleash the Gospel

Thank you, Fr. Karls and God bless you and your parish missionary work.

Rev. Victor Karls, C.Ss.R.

Fr. Victor Karls, originally from Middleton, Wisconsin, joined the Redemptorists after attending the University of Wisconsin. Ordained in 1970, his first assignment was to work on the Redemptorist overseas mission. Returning to the United States, he was appointed Director at Villa Redeemer Retreat Center in Chicago, Illinois. Following this assignment, he took over the duties of Director of Circulation of the LIGUORIAN magazine in Liguori, Missouri. Always possessing a great interest in parish missions, he was able to participate in weekly missions in many parts of the United States on a part-time basis for fifteen years. This interest expanded to full-time parish missionary work. He is presently stationed at Liguori Mission House, Liguori, Missouri and continues his parish missionary work part-time. His deep love for the poor and desire to help them lead him to join Food For the Poor.
