Celebrating Notes

Prayer to Heal Racial Division

We thank you, O Lord, for in your loving wisdom You created one human family with a diversity that enriches our communities. We pray to you, O Lord, that we always recognize each member of this human family as being made in your image and beloved by you, with worth and dignity.

We pray to you, O Lord, that we may envision a way forward to heal the racial divisions that deny human dignity and the bonds between all human beings.

We pray to you, O Lord, that we may affirm each person's dignity through fair access for all to economic opportunity, housing, education, and employment.

We pray to you, O Lord, that we may have eyes to see what is possible when we reach out beyond fear, beyond anger, to hold the hand of our sisters, our brothers.

We thank you, O Lord, for your call and challenge to us that we may reveal your teachings and your love through our actions to end racism and to proclaim that we are all your children, heirs to your sacred creation. Amen. (USCCB, 2018)

Question of the Week

Reading: Matthew 13:1-23

Adults: In Matthew's Gospel, bearing fruit is significant, the sign of being a disciple. What kind of soil are you at this moment? What will you do this week to be rich soil, to hear and understand the Word, and then what kind of fruit will you produce?

Children: Jesus tells us to hear His voice while we read the Bible. Listen carefully. What did Jesus say to you today? What will you tell your friend about Jesus?
