OUR PARISH ANNUAL EUCHARISTIC DEVOTIONS

will take place on Wednesday, July 22nd - The Feast of Saint Mary Magdalene - 7:00-8:00 PM. In these unusual times, we have adjusted the format for this year's annual observance of these devotions. Weather permitting, Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament will take place outdoors, underneath the walkway between the Church and the Parish Center (entrance to the Religious Education), in the context of Evening Prayer. You are invited to participate in these devotions from either your vehicles in the Parking Lot (as it will be livestreamed via Facebook live), or feel free to bring lawn chairs to set up and sit near your vehicles (weather permitting), being certain to observe physical distancing/mask mandate where called for. A worship booklet will be provided. As we gather, in person or virtually, may our focus be on the Lord, as was Saint Mary Magdalene's. In the presence of the Blessed Sacrament, may we hear him speak our name as she did, calling us to go and proclaim the good news of Him who rose from the dead.

Coming Events/News in our Parish

THE THURSDAY BIBLE STUDY has resumed at 2:00 pm – as a zoom meeting. We gather “virtually” for approximately one hour, to break open the readings for the upcoming weekend. If you’d like to join with others, contact Linda Herold.

THE PRAYER NOTES’ BOOK, for the time being, is in the Parish Center, near the tabernacle in Room 101. If you would like something to be added, please contact the parish office and we will write it in for you. You can be as specific or as private as you’d like to be.

Question of the Week

Reading: Matthew 13:24-43

Adults: Today, we may find ourselves surrounded by weeds, by factors that would declare that the Lord is not present in our tribulations. Yet with the mustard seed and yeast, we see how just a small amount of faith can grow into something very fruitful. How will you patiently nourish the faith you have been given today, to see the Lord at work? How will you share that with others?

Children: Ask your parents to show you how small a mustard seed is. What will you do to help your faith and love for Jesus grow from a tiny seed to a large bush?

CONGRATULATIONS to the 200 Club winner(s) for the weekend of July 12, 2020:
