PLEASE TAKE NOTE OF THE CHANGES IN MASS TIMES IN THE UPPER LEFT COLUMN.

Daily Mass has returned to Monday – Thursday at 8:30 am; there is no Mass on Friday; Saturday Mass is 5:00 pm; and Sunday Masses will be at 8:30 am and 11:00 am. Weekdays the church will close shortly after Mass is completed, sanitizing will take place, and the church will remain closed after sanitizing, until the next Mass. The 1st Mass on Sundays will begin ½ hour earlier (at 8:30 am) in order to leave time for sanitizing before the 11:00 Mass begins. Again the church will then remain closed until the next Mass.

Because we are not fully back to celebrating all things Liturgical in the church building at this time, we have also added a letter code next to the time of each Mass/Service in parenthesis to let you know the place in which that service will be held. The Key is as follows: C – Church; PC – Parish Center; PL –Parking Lot (back). Example: Monday, June 1st, Daily Mass will begin at 8:30 am in the Church, and Adoration, etc will begin at 7:00 pm in Parish Ctr Rm 101 live-streamed and can be viewed on your tablet or smart phone in the back Parking Lot or at home. Please note that all services held in the Parish Center will be celebrated privately at this time and live-streamed, but you may tune in to the parish facebook page, they will also be uploaded to Vimeo, or YouTube.

Also, please note we are not ready to resume Saturday morning Confessions at this time. Stay tuned . . .

Question of the Week

Reading: John 20:19-23

Adults: Today's Gospel mentions the doors of the upper room being locked. Our doors, too, have been locked, and perhaps like the disciples we have been afraid. Now, as you re-enter, allow the breath and peace of Christ to flow into you as you enter, hear His word and receive His body. Share with someone how you feel at this reunification. How will you recall and cherish all you have experienced during the past several months?

Children: What are some things you have been afraid of? Ask the Holy Spirit to help you to not be afraid. Tell your family or friends about how you feel now.
