Do You Get or Give on Sunday

"I didn't get much out of the church services last Sunday," a church member said to another. "What do you mean?" The man asked. "I do not go to Church primarily to get something. I go to give God the gratitude, adoration, and praised that I, His child, should give Him."

Thought: Anyone is able to distinguish in a moment the person of worship and the person who develops into the constant critic. One goes to get... The other goes to give himself/herself in gratitude, in praise, in adoration, and returns home satisfied.

bb: Which type of person are you? Do you get or give on Sunday?

Short and Sweet

A mother was preparing pancakes for her sons, Kevin, 5, and Ryan, 3. The boys began to argue over who would get the first pancake... Their mother saw the opportunity for a moral lesson. She told her little boys: If Jesus were sitting here, He would say, 'Let my brother have the first pancake. I can wait.' Kevin turned to his younger brother and said, 'Ryan, you be Jesus.'

A Note of Sympathy

We extend our sincerest condolences to the family, relatives and friends of the late + Ann Jablonsky, who recently passed away in the Lord. + Ann was laid to rest on Thursday, June 30th. We pray that her soul may rest in the bosom of Abraham and that her memory be everlasting. Vichnaya Pamyat!

Going Away On Vacation?

Now that it's Summer, many folks will be headed to many wonderful destinations on vacation. If that includes you, please remember that you still have your responsibility to attend Divine Liturgy or Mass on all Sundays and Holy Days of Obligation during the year. Do your best to find a Ukrainian Catholic, Byzantine Catholic, or Roman Catholic Church in the region where you're vacationing. And do remember that as a member of your Church back home, you still have your sacred duty to make your weekly monetary offerings.

Save the Date!

The Ukrainian Catholic Hierarchy of the USA invites all of the clergy, religious and faithful to plan to participate in a prayerful remembrance of our first Bishop, The Most Rev. Soter Stephen Ortynsky, OSBM. We will commemorate the 150th anniversary of his birth, the 125th anniversary of ordination to the holy priesthood, and the 100th anniversary of his death, on Sunday, October 30th at 3 pm at the Ukrainian Catholic Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception in Philadelphia. Vespers will be celebrated with a reflection offered by Rev. Dr. Ivan Kaszczak, author, “Bishop Soter Stephen Ortynsky and the Genesis of the Eastern Catholic Churches in America”, to be followed by a Memorial Prayer in the Cathedral Crypt. An Opening and Blessing of the newly relocated premises of ‘Treasury of Faith’ Ukrainian Catholic Museum will be held immediately thereafter in testimony to Bishop Ortynsky. Please plan to participate. We respectfully ask that parishes and organizations not plan other events at this time, permitting faithful to pray for the soul of our first Bishop and to honor his contribution. We are grateful for everyone’s anticipated assistance and participation.

Rev. Nestor Iwasiw, Pastor

Let Us Show Everyone God's Generosity

Recognize to whom you owe the fact that you exist, that you breathe, that you understand, that you are wise, and, above all, that you know God and hope for the kingdom of heaven. ... You have been made a son of God, coheir with Christ. Where did you get all this, and from whom? Who has endowed you with all that makes mankind superior to all other living creatures?

Is it not God who asks you now in your turn to show yourself generous above all other creatures and for the sake of all other creatures? Because we have received from Him so many wonderful gifts, will we not be ashamed to refuse Him this one thing only, our generosity? If we do, we shall hear

Saint Peter say: "Be ashamed of yourselves for holding on to what belongs to someone else. Resolve to imitate God's justice, and no one will be poor."

Let us not labor to heap up and hoard riches while others remain in need. He has given abundantly to all the basic needs of life, not as a private possession, ... but as common to all. ... His gifts are not deficient in any way, because He wanted to give equality of blessing to equality of worth, and to show the abundance of His generosity.
