8 Year-Old's Explanation Of God.

Written by an 8 year old from Chula Vista, CA, for his third grade homework assignment. The assignment was to explain God. Just a wonder if any of us could do as well?

One of God's main jobs is making people. He makes them to replace the ones that die, so there will be enough people to take care of things on earth. He doesn't make grownups, just babies. I think because they are smaller and easier to make. That way he doesn't have to take up his valuable time teaching them to talk and walk. He can just leave that to mothers and fathers.

God's second most important job is listening to prayers. An awful lot of this goes on, since some people, like preachers and things, pray at times beside bedtime. God doesn't have time to listen to the radio or TV because of this. Because he hears everything, there must be a terrible lot of noise in his ears, unless he has thought of a way to turn it off. God sees everything and hears everything and is everywhere which keeps Him pretty busy. So you shouldn't go wasting his time by going over your mom and dad's head asking for something they said you couldn't have.

Atheists are people who don't believe in God. I don't think there are any in Chula Vista. At least there aren't any who come to our church. Jesus is God's Son. He used to do all the hard work like walking on water and performing miracles and trying to teach the people who didn't want to learn about God. They finally got tired of him preaching to them and they crucified him. But he was good and kind, like his father, and he told his father that they didn't know what they were doing and to forgive them and God said O.K.

His dad (God) appreciated everything that he had done and all his hard work on earth so he told him he didn't have to go out on the road anymore. He could stay in heaven. So he did. And now he helps his dad out by listening to prayers and seeing things which are important for God to take care of and which ones he can take care of himself without having to bother God. Like a secretary, only more important. You can pray anytime you want and they are sure to help you because they got it worked out so one of them is on duty all the time.

You should always go to church on Sunday because it makes God happy, and if there's anybody you want to make happy, it's God. Don't skip church or do something you think will be more fun like going to the beach. This is wrong and besides the sun doesn't come out at the beach until noon anyway.

If you don't believe in God, besides being an atheist, you will be very lonely, because your parents can't go everywhere with you, like to camp, but God can. It is good to know He's around you when you're scared, in the dark or when you can't swim and you get thrown into real deep water by big kids.

But... you shouldn't just always think of what God can do for you. I figure God put me here and he can take me back anytime he pleases. And this is what I know about God.

Why Do Candles Go Before The Gospel?

When the priest carries the Gospel Book in a procession during the liturgy, the altar servers carry candles before him to show that the word of God is a "lamp unto our feet and a light unto our path." The candles that go before the Gospel Book tell us that the word of God is truly a light for the darkness in which we walk. The purpose of God's Word is to show us the way, to prevent us from stumbling in the darkness, and to lead us home to God. We need to listen carefully when God's Word is being read in church. We need also to read God's Word every day in the holy Bible. God's word is like a flashlight in the darkness. St. Isaac the Syrian said, "Reading the Word of God is the light of the soul."

How A Christian Is Like A Pumpkin

A lady recently being baptized was asked by a coworker what it was like to be a Christian. She replied, "It's like being a pumpkin: God picks you from the patch, brings you in, and washes all the dirt off you may have gotten from the other pumpkins. Then he cuts the top off and scoops out all the yucky stuff. He removes the seeds of doubt, hate, greed, etc. Then He carves you a new smiling face and puts His light inside of you to shine for all the world to see."

Driving Out Demons

Listen to me, dearly beloved, listen to me or this sweat of mine may bear witness against you; listen to me. When the apostle James was talking about faith and works against those who thought their faith was enough, and didn't want to have good works, he said, "You believe that God is one; you do well; the demons too believe, and tremble" (James 2: 19). Will the demons, do you suppose, be delivered from eternal fire, just because they believe and tremble? Look, there's what you heard in the Gospel, what Peter said: "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God" (Mt 16: 16); read, and you'll find the demons said, "We know who you are, the Son of God." Peter, though, is praised, the demons put down. One voice, different deeds. What distinguishes these two confessions from each other? Love is praised, fear condemned. I mean, the demons didn't say this out of love, "You are the Son of God." They said this out of fear, not love.

Hope in the Lord, and join good deeds to true faith. Confess that Christ has come in the flesh, both by believing and by living good lives, and hold on to both as received from Him, and hope for both to be increased and perfected by Him. For cursed is everyone who places his hope in man. And it is good for any of us, that whoever boasts, should boast in the Lord.

Turning to the Lord God the Father almighty, from a pure heart, as far as our littleness is able, let us give Him the most sincere and true thanks; praying His singular gentleness with our whole hearts, that He would be pleased at His good pleasure to hearken to our prayers; that He would also drive the enemy away from our actions and thoughts with His great power; that He would increase our faith; guide our minds, grant us spiritual thoughts, and bring us to share in His own bliss.
