

REFLECTIONS ON THE ADVENT SCRIPTURE READINGS

Advent is a time of preparation and anticipation. The Scripture readings for Sundays in Advent are some of the most inspiring of the whole liturgical year, as they encourage us to wait in joyful hope for the coming of our Savior.

You are invited to take a closer look at the Advent Scripture readings by participating in a four-part series during which we will explore the well-known individuals and themes that populate these verses. This will be an opportunity to read, pray, and reflect together – much like an “Advent Book Club” – where we ponder and process the anticipated readings for the upcoming Sunday. The sessions will be facilitated by Al McCauley.

You may choose to attend either the morning sessions from 11:00am-12:00pm (childcare is available with pre-registration) or the evening sessions from 6:00-7:00pm on the following dates: Tuesdays, November 24, December 1, 8, 15.

Due to the current COVID-19 limitations, the number of participants will be limited to 20 for each time frame. There is a participant fee of $10 per person.
