

Enhance Your Worship Experience

Looking for a way to be more prepared for Mass every week and have a better understanding of the readings?

Living the Word, written by John Barker, OFM and Karla Bellinger, is a thought-provoking commentary on the Sunday and Holy Day scriptures. This 270-page book is full of insightful reflections, meditations and discussion questions covering the entire church year beginning with November 29, the First Sunday in Advent. All three scripture passages and the psalm are included all in one place in this easy to use book.

It's perfect resource for bible study and makes a great Christmas gift.
