1 Corinthians 6:17

FROM OUR PASTOR

Days of Remembrance

We have just completed the great fall triduum of the Eve of All Hallows, All Saint's Day, and All Souls Day. It is easy to miss their significance since we often allow secular observances to cloud its meaning. During the Fall, the earth prepares for winter. This signals a period of dying, of dormancy and hibernation. This weekend also marks the end of daylight savings time as we "fall back" into the early hours of darkness. This is a time for Christians to reflect on the reality of dying and rising with the Lord.

By reclaiming our Christian traditions, we affirm our Christian discipleship and seek lives of holiness. During the Easter Triduum: Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and Holy Saturday, we recall the ultimate gift of salvation through Christ's Passion, Death, and Resurrection. During these days, we remember the graces of Easter lived by the saints and martyrs whose lives reveal the saving work of Christ's transforming love in their lives. On Halloween, it was the tradition of dressing up and acting like the saints of old. Celebrations of Mass and festivals followed on All Saint's Day honoring our patron saints. We rejoice that God worked in their lives in hope and trust that we share a similar destiny in heaven.

On All Souls Day, we commemorate all our faithful departed. In our Catholic tradition, we remember "the souls in purgatory, waiting for eternal happiness and for meeting the Beloved is a source of suffering, because of the punishment due to sin which separates them from God. But there is also the certitude that once the time of purification is over, the soul will get to meet the One it desires." (Letter of Pope St. John Paul II of Millennium of All Soul's Day).

Since the earliest experiences of the Church, we pray with the saints and for the dead as we offer masses for their intentions. We visit family graves and recall the love and mercy that is shared. In Mexico, on el Dia de los Muertos (Day of the Dead), people take picnics to their family graves and leave food out for their dead relatives. During this triduum of days, we must not forget our intimate union with the Lord and with those who have gone before us marked with the "Sign of Faith," the Communion of Saints.

WEEKLY REFLECTION

Today's readings and prayers remind us of God's continuous interaction with his creation. God loves his creation and is constantly calling it to holiness. God loved the world so much that he sent Jesus to save the world from sin. Many who lived during Jesus' lifetime received personal invitations to repent. Zacchaeus in Luke's gospel was one of those Jesus personally called to conversion. When Jesus summons Zacchaeus down from the sycamore tree and invites himself to stay at the tax collector's house, Zacchaeus is transformed and "received Jesus with joy." His life is forever changed as Jesus says, "Today salvation has come to this house because this man too is a descendant of Abraham." Jesus' time on earth was temporary but on Pentecost the Holy Spirit descended upon the earth and has been our guide and inspiration ever since. Saint Paul reminds us of this in his letter to the Thessalonians where he prays for the community, asking that "our God may make you worthy of his calling and powerfully bring to fulfillment every good purpose and every effort of faith...." These words give us great comfort because they reinforce the words from Responsorial Psalm, "The Lord is faithful in all his words and holy in all his works. The Lord lifts up all who are falling and raises up all who are bowed down." Knowing that God is watching over us every moment of our lives gives us the courage to face each day, regardless of its challenge. We joyfully proclaim, Lord, "everyday will I bless you, and I will praise your name forever and ever."

Zacchaeus Meets Jesus

When Jesus reached the spot, he looked up and said to him, "Zacchaeus, come down immediately. I must stay at your house today." So he came down at once and welcomed him gladly. Luke 19:5-6 (NIV)

DE NUESTRO PÁRROCO

Día Memorial

Hemos concluido el triduo de otoño con la Víspera de Todos los Santos, Día de Todos los Santos y Día de Todos los Fieles Difuntos. Es fácil no darnos cuenta de su significado porque permitimos que las observaciones seculares nos opaquen su significado. Durante el otoño, la tierra se prepara para el invierno. Es el periodo de sequio, de inactividad y de hibernación. También marcamos el final del horario de verano atrasando una hora de las primeras horas de oscuridad. Este es el tiempo para que los cristianos reflexionemos sobre la realidad del morir y resucitar con el Señor.

Reclamando nuestras tradiciones cristianas, afirmamos nuestro discipulado cristiano y buscamos vidas de santidad. Durante el Triduo Pascual: Jueves Santo, Viernes Santo, y Sábado Santo, recordamos el regalo más grande de la salvación por medio de la Pasión, Muerte, y Resurrección de Cristo. Recordamos la gracia de la Pascua que vivieron los santos y los mártires y cuyas vidas revelan la obra de salvación por medio del amor transformado por Cristo. En Halloween, la tradición era de disfrazarse y actuar como los santos de antes, luego la celebración de la Misa y los festivales el Día de Todo los Santos para honrar a nuestros santos patronos. Dios trabajo en sus vidas y con gozo, esperanza y confianza esperamos compartir un destino similar en el cielo.

El Día de los Fieles Difuntos, conmemoramos a todos los difuntos. En nuestra tradición católica, recordamos a "las almas del purgatorio, la espera de la bienaventuranza eterna, del encuentro con el Amado, es fuente de sufrimientos a causa de la pena debida al pecado, que las mantiene alejadas de Dios. Pero también existe la certeza de que, una vez acabado el tiempo de purificación, el alma irá al encuentro de Aquel a quien desea (Papa san Juan Pablo II, Milenario de la Conmemoración de los Fieles Difuntos)

Desde las primeras experiencias de la Iglesia, oramos con los santos y por los difuntos al ofrecer misas por sus intenciones. Visitamos las tumbas de nuestros familiares recordamos el amor y la misericordia que compartimos. En México, para el Día de los Muertos, las personas visitan las tumbas, comparten comida y dejan comida para sus difuntos. En estos días de triduo, no olvidemos nuestra unión íntima con el Señor y con los que se han ido antes, marcados con la "Señal de Fe," la Comunión de los Santos.

REFLEXIÓN SEMANAL

DIOS CUMPLE

Las lecturas y oraciones de hoy nos recuerdan la interacción continua de Dios con su creación. Dios ama a su creación y la llama constantemente a la santidad. Dios amó tanto al mundo que envió a Jesús para salvarlo del pecado. Muchos de los que vivieron durante la vida de Jesús, recibieron invitaciones personales para arrepentirse. Zaqueo, en el Evangelio de San Lucas, fue uno de los que Jesús llamó personalmente a la conversión. Cuando Jesús llama a Zaqueo a bajarse del árbol de sicómoro y le dice que va a hospedarse en su casa, Zaqueo baja enseguida y "recibe a Jesús con alegría". Su vida cambia por completo, como dice Jesús: "Hoy ha llegado la salvación a esta casa, porque este hombre también es hijo de Abraham".

El tiempo de Jesús en la tierra fue pasajero, pero en Pentecostés, el Espíritu Santo descendió sobre la tierra y ha sido nuestra guía e inspiración desde entonces. San Pablo nos recuerda esto en su Carta a los Tesalonicenses, cuando ora por la comunidad "para que Dios los haga dignos de la vocación a la que los ha llamado y con su poder, lleve a efecto tanto los buenos propósitos que ustedes han formado, como lo que ya han emprendido por la fe". Estas palabras nos dan consuelo porque refuerzan las palabras del Salmo Responsorial: "El Señor es siempre fiel a sus palabras y lleno de bondad en sus acciones. El Señor apoya al que tropieza y al agobiado alivia". Saber que Dios nos está cuidando en cada momento de nuestra vida, nos da el valor para enfrentar cada día, independientemente de su desafío. Con alegría proclamamos, Señor, "todos los días te bendeciré y alabaré tu nombre por los siglos de los siglos".
