Advent: Six Minutes a Day with the Lord

We are very blessed in this parish to have the many gifts shared by talented and thoughtful parishioners. That thoughtfulness is reflected in the desire to share gifts and talents along with those who wish to receive them as part of the graces bestowed on us by a loving God. We have seen this in the Call to Renew Campaign that has benefited the parish with the completion of the OLA School and Mulcahy Center roofing project. It is also reflected in the faith formation program, Arise Together in Christ process that was recently completed and will begin Season 2 during Lent.

There is also the many examples of shared giving in through the generosity of many in the parish through the weekly offerings and in the Together in Mission Annual Appeal. Many volunteers in ministry contribute to their living the Gospel by their acts of service to others. We are so very blessed to have a community of so many generous people.

As we share in this Advent Season, we are grateful for the desire of our faithful who want to meet the Lord through prayer and reflection. We have a great tradition of utilizing, through the generosity of others, the gift of the "Little Books". The Little Blue Book was the inspiration of a wonderful priest and bishop, Ken Untener, from Saginaw, Michigan. As a poet, preacher, and spiritual director, Bishop Untener continues to inspire those he touched by their devotion to his message of "breaking open and living Gods' Word" in the midst of our busy lives. During this Advent and Christmas Season, the Blue Book will offer us simple ways to deepen faith, hope, and love of the Lord. This year, let's not keep this a secret or strictly a personal encounter with Christ but make it an opportunity for family discussion and sharing of faith. Utilize the reflections for communal prayer and invite others to join in time for reflection. I pray that your engagement with the Lord will initiate an invitation to reach out to those who need to hear the Good News of Jesus Christ, born again into our world to offer peace and joy to the broken hearted and those who seek the Lord.

WEEKLY REFLECTION

Today, St. Matthew's Gospel presents us with John the Baptist inviting us to conversion: "the Kingdom of heaven is now at hand!" Many people came to John, acknowledging their sins and "being baptized by him in the Jordan River.". But from the whole crowd, John fixes in on some individuals in particular, the Pharisees and the Sadducees, as much in need of conversion as they were obstinate in the denial of such a necessity. It is to them that the Baptist directs the words "Produce good fruit as evidence of your repentance."

Having started Advent, a time of joyful anticipation, we find ourselves listening to John's exhortation, which wakes us to the fact that this wait is not a passive anticipation, nor that we should think that we are already saved by the mere virtue of being Christians. This anticipation, this wait, is the dynamic searching for the mercy of God. It is the conversion of the heart, it is the search for the presence of the Lord who came, who comes and who will come again.

Advent, in reality is what St. John Paul II described as a "conversion that crosses over from the heart into action and, consequently, to the eternal life of the Christian."

We should make good use of this opportune time which the Lord has given us to renovate our option for Jesus Christ, ridding ourselves of all the things that may be in our hearts and our lives that impede us from receiving him properly. The voice of the Baptist still resounds in the desert of our times: "Prepare a way for the Lord; make straight his paths."

This is a time of year when many opportunities to others arise. It is a time to rekindle the urgency about living our baptismal commitment, about following Christ faithfully, about producing good fruit. We are called to be on fire with the wonder of this season, to prepare to celebrate Christ's Incarnated Presence with us, and to proclaim that same message to others.

DE NUESTRO PÁRROCO

Adviento: Seis Minutos al Día con el Señor

Es una gran bendición que en esta parroquia tengamos tantos feligreses que comparten sus dones y talentos. Se refleja en el deseo de compartir dones y talentos junto con aquellos que desean recibirlos como parte de las gracias que nos otorga un Dios amoroso. Lo vimos en la campaña Llamados a Renovar que ha beneficiado a la parroquia al completar la restauración del techo de la Escuela OLA y el Centro Mulcahy. También se reflejó en la primera temporada del programa de formación de fe, Levántate, Unámonos en Cristo que concluimos recientemente y que empezaremos la segunda temporada durante la Cuaresma.

Son muchos los ejemplos de donaciones compartidas a través de la generosidad de muchos en la parroquia que hacen su ofrenda semanal y en la Campaña Anual de Unidos en Misión. Muchos voluntarios viven el Evangelio con sus actos de servicio a los demás. Recibimos una gran bendición al tener una comunidad de tantas personas generosas.

Al compartir esta temporada de Adviento, estamos agradecidos por el deseo de esta comunidad de encontrarse con el Señor a través de la oración y la reflexión. Cada año, gracias a la generosidad compartida, recibimos el regalo de los "Pequeños libros". Este Pequeño Libro Azul fue la inspiración de un maravilloso sacerdote y obispo, Ken Untener, de Saginaw, Michigan. Como poeta, predicador y director espiritual, el obispo Untener continúa inspirando con su devoción a su mensaje de "abrir y vivir la Palabra de Dios" en medio de las ocupaciones de nuestras vidas. Durante esta época de Adviento y Navidad, el Libro Azul nos ofrece una manera simple de profundizar en la fe, la esperanza y el amor al Señor. Este año, no mantengamos esto en secreto o como un encuentro estrictamente personal con Cristo, sino que busquemos la oportunidad para el dialogo familiar y el intercambio de fe. Utilice las reflexiones para la oración comunitaria e invite a otros a unirse y buscar tiempo para la reflexión. Estaré orando para que su compromiso con el Señor inicie una invitación para llegar a aquellos que necesitan escuchar la Buena Nueva de Jesucristo, renacidos en nuestro mundo para ofrecer paz y alegría a los quebrantados de corazón y a aquellos que buscan al Señor.

Bendito viaje de Adviento

REFLEXIÓN SEMANAL

El Evangelio de San Mateo nos presenta hoy a Juan el Bautista invitándonos a la conversión: "¡Arrepiéntanse, porque ya está cerca el Reino de los cielos!" Muchos llegaban a Juan, "confesaban sus pecados y él los bautizaba en el río". Pero de toda la multitud, Juan se fijaba en algunos individuos en particular: los fariseos y los saduceos, quienes estaban con tanta necesidad de conversión como era su obstinación y negación de ella. Es para estos que el Bautista dirige las palabras: "Hagan ver con obras su conversión". Habiendo comenzado el Adviento; el tiempo de gozosa anticipación, nos encontramos escuchando la exhortación de Juan, quien nos hace despertar al hecho de que esta espera no es una anticipación pasiva, ni una garantía de que estamos ya salvos por la mera virtud de ser cristianos. Esta anticipación, o esta espera, es la búsqueda dinámica de la misericordia de Dios. Es la conversión del corazón y la búsqueda de la presencia del Señor que vino, que viene y que vendrá de nuevo.

Adviento es en realidad lo que San Juan Pablo II describió como una "conversión que cruza del corazón a la acción y, en consecuencia, a la vida eterna del cristiano".

Debemos aprovechar esta oportunidad que el Señor nos ha dado para renovar nuestra opción por Jesucristo, liberándonos de todas las ataduras en nuestro corazón y nuestra vida que nos impidan recibirlo adecuadamente. La voz del Bautista todavía resuena en el desierto de nuestros tiempos: "Preparen el camino del Señor; enderecen sus senderos". Esta es una época del año en la surgen muchas oportunidades para ayudar a los demás. Es un momento para reavivar la urgencia de vivir nuestro compromiso bautismal, de seguir a Cristo fielmente, de producir buenos frutos. Somos llamados a arder con las maravillas de esta temporada, a prepararnos para celebrar la Presencia Encarnada de Cristo en nosotros y a proclamar ese mismo mensaje a los demás.

PROGRAMA DE INDEMNIZACIÓN INDEPENDIENTE PARA VÍCTIMAS-SOBREVIVIENTES DEL ABUSO SEXUAL POR SACERDOTES DIOCESANOS (ICP)

Como parte de nuestro compromiso de proporcionar atención pastoral y apoyar el proceso de sanación para las víctimas-sobrevivientes, la Arquidiócesis de Los Ángeles junto con otras cinco diócesis en California, están participando en el Programa de Indemnización Independiente para Víctimas-Sobrevivientes de Abuso Sexual de Menores por Sacerdotes Diocesanos (ICP, en inglés). El ICP es administrado independientemente de la Iglesia por Kenneth Feinberg y Camille Biros, dos expertos en administración de reclamos reconocidos a nivel nacional. El programa está aceptando inscripciones de cualquier persona que, como menor de edad, haya sido abusada sexualmente por sacerdotes diocesanos de las diócesis participantes, sin importar la fecha de cuando ocurrió el abuso. Los fondos para el programa en nuestra Arquidiócesis vendrán de reservas de seguro designadas para este propósito. Oramos para que este nuevo programa pueda proporcionar otra vía hacia la sanación y la esperanza. Para obtener más información sobre el ICP, por favor visite www.californiadiocesasicp.com.
