

Welcome to the RCIA Experience

Preparing Adults for Discipleship

September 4, 2018

RCIA: A Journey of Faith

- ❖ Journey, relationship
- ❖ Come to “know God” more deeply
- ❖ Responding to the call to follow
- ❖ Not just me and God

Q: What is Conversion?

- ❖ e.g. currency
- ❖ Christian Perspective:
 - An Ongoing transformation into the image of Jesus
 - Process / Struggle
- ❖ Turn & Talk: Has my conversion story been more of a process or struggle?

Q: What's RCIA?

- ❖ Responding to God's call
- ❖ Entering (more) deeply into a sacramental life

Steps

Inquiry

Catechumenate

Purification/Enlightenment

Mystagogia

Rite/Celebration

Acceptance/Welcome

Election

Easter Vigil

Living the Sacraments

Questions?

What does it mean to be Catholic?

Proper “Framing” is Important...

Consider this example: “A newspaper is better than a magazine. A seashore is a better place than the street. At first it is better to run than to walk. You may have to try several times. It takes some skill, but it’s easy to learn. Even young children can enjoy it. Birds seldom get too close. Rain, however, soaks in very fast. One needs lots of room. If there are no complications it can be very peaceful. A rock will serve as an anchor. If it breaks loose, however, you will not get a second chance.”

Without context this narrative doesn't make sense

Even small things have meaning, but without the “framing” we can easily...

...get lost / frustrated

...come up with our own interpretation
(however accurate or inaccurate)

...or eventually give up trying to understand

Maybe Church teaching
- whether on the Trinity, Incarnation,
Virgin Mary, morals, or sexuality – hasn't made sense to us because we haven't been given the right context.

Kite...

Now read that “meaningless” paragraph again.

“A newspaper is better than a magazine. A seashore is a better place than the street. At first it is better to run than to walk. You may have to try several times. It takes some skill, but it’s easy to learn. Even young children can enjoy it. Birds seldom get too close. Rain, however, soaks in very fast. One needs lots of room. If there are no complications it can be very peaceful. A rock will serve as an anchor. If it breaks loose, however, you will not get a second chance.”

Mike Metzger, Clapham Institute

What does it really mean to be Catholic?

What do we already know

We Believe...

- * in one loving, personal God in three divine persons
- * that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God
- * that Christ died for us, rose from the dead, and will come again

We Believe...

- ❖ that Jesus is present in the Holy Eucharist
- ❖ that scripture is the primary, sufficient, and reliable source of our beliefs

❖ and more...

But being Catholic is more than...

- ❖ a religion (a collection of beliefs and values)
- ❖ a set of rules and regulations
- ❖ an assortment of duties and obligations

Being Catholic means...

- ❖ Striving to live the Gospel
- ❖ Being authentic and realizing our full potential
- ❖ Trying to be like Jesus

It means...

- ❖ Being part of a community
- ❖ Drawing on a rich spiritual tradition
- ❖ Always having something to celebrate
- ❖ Having examples of wonderful heroes and heroines
- ❖ Promoting peace and justice

In the final analysis...

Being a Catholic Christian is not about being a member of an institution.

It's about being a member of the Body of Christ.

It's not just about what you believe.

It's about relationship with Jesus...

It's not mainly about following the rules.

It is about following Jesus.

May God grant us the grace to answer the call to faithfully follow Jesus in all things. Amen.