Bring a Friend to Mass Weekend

We always welcome new people; however, we had a weekend dedicated to inviting new people to Mass. Information Packets were ready for anyone wanting more details on our parish! On Sunday, we held a

July with Jesus

This group, led by Julie Burt, met every Wednesday in July to study the upcoming Gospel readings.

SAYM

Junior High: Summer of Service
Partnering with Ascension and St. Francis, the youth came together every Tuesday to serve the Dayton community in some manner.

High School: Mission in my back yard

High School youth participated in a mission trip, here in Dayton. For the week, they partnered with non-profits all over the surrounding area, doing service work where needed.

"After Mass Social."

Coffee & Donuts were served after all Sunday Masses in the Parish Center.

Knights of Columbus

Thank you to KofC for hosting the above Coffee & Donuts, and for the new AED in the church hallway.

Our youth ministry coordinator, Jess de Groot is leaving us to pursue a Masters degree at UD. We thank her for all she has done for St. Albert!

Farmers Market

The Garden Guilds' Farmers Market is back! Organic produce is sold after Sunday Masses in the breezeway.

Legion of Mary Montgomery Cty Fair

Legion of Mary had a Catholic booth at the Fair, handing out information and gifts, such as rosaries, medals, and literature. Even in the rain and heat, LofM gave their all! Thank You

Catch the Building Spirit

The new house for a worthy family is going great. Donations are always needed and appreciated!

Ladies Book Study

The ladies book club group had another session, this time on the book Making Peace with Change. If you would like to learn more about the Book Club, see the bulletin.
