- $2,000 donation from Action Jackson
- Ministry Fair on Oct. 15th after masses
- Leasing a new dishwasher for next 4 years. $100 a month
- Allen Rossi is now Facilities Manager. Christin Godfrey is Kitchen Manager. Annie Cox will work in kitchen
- Visited and ironed out some miscommunications about lock down procedure with Boise Police Department

Staff Liaison's Report

- No update

Old Business:

- Auction Update and Needs (liaison: Brooke Smith)
  - 238 Donations so far, guaranteed another 25 more. Need more
  - 100 seats left to sell. 250 sold so far
  - More advertising of the Auction for next couple of weeks to bring in more sales

Auction:

- Ask Tina Casper to help with auction task. Move items to envelopes
- Class baskets are struggling: 4-7th grade
- To those people who need auction hours: airfare/miles, money towards a meal, monthly dinners - need December to fill, wine bottles, etc...
- Call program sponsors
- Backpack-Mailer going out this Friday about Camp Lions/Auction

Breakroom Coffee Update (Jodi)

- No actual contract, they come in and replace when needed. Refill one bag, one type of tea, runs about $70 a month. No extra money for K-cups. Not cost-effective

New Business:

- Andrea: Sports Focus vs. Academic Focus
  - Reach out to teachers and parents to have “Good Luck” decorations in halls and a pep rally. (More parent-driven)
- Need new Scrip coordinator ASAP (no later than December)
- Make Scrip mandatory for families? School to decide
- Ask pre-k, kinder, new families for new Coordinator?
- School board willing to take on Scrip but in the meantime, more recruitment
- Recruitment will be sent out in Friday Facts

Next Meeting: November 12th , 7:00 p.m.
