

“Remember Mom”

Moms offer us:

1. An emotional stability and a special humility grounding one to life.
2. An emotional sense of belonging - a sense of security that you are not alone.
3. A deep unexplainable sense of presence - like – a physical and/or spiritual holy space called home in their own person.

Mom’s gifts are:

1. Patience – even when it would be easier not to be.
2. Acceptance - being often unconditional – like glue – having to deal with the good, the bad and the ugly.
3. Understanding – they may not agree, but will often give you the benefit of the doubt.
4. Healers – They are an unspoken healer just by their physical presence or hearing their voice often makes you feel better.

Moms model for us:

1. Faith and trust – They show us not to be afraid.
2. Charity – They remind us to do our part and share.
3. Hope – They teach us that there is more.
4. Love – unconditional, almost to a fault

Moms inspires us:

1. With their hobbies, they show us how to get involve and do something.
2. By the way moms do puzzles – they put many pieces together and see the whole picture of life.
3. By their interaction with the young and the old, they show us that everyone is worthy and important.
4. Moms, by being open minded and engaging, see all the possibilities and potentials in their children even when we don’t see it ourselves.

This is only a small reflection of why we honor our moms.

This why we celebrate and remember our moms, either living here or in heaven.

They are always with us.

We are part of them.

Happy Mother’s Day.
