

St. Joan/St. Catherine's Reads Book Club

For September 21, 2021, we will discuss the historical fiction Woman 99 by Greer MacAllister. In the late 1800's, Charlotte gets herself committed to an asylum. Why? She has a sister there, whom she hopes to free. Does she succeed?

Flight Behavior by Barbara Kingsolver will be our book to discuss for November 16, 2021. This novel is about a wife and mother in Tennessee, who has an unexplainable experience, which leads to competing factions, including religious leaders, climate scientists, and politicians. It leads to her world opening up.

If you have questions about joining our book club, please contact Mary Miller, 262-567-9306, leave a message. We will meet at the Waukesha State Bank, Fowler Room in the lower level. The bank is next to Chili's off of Hwy 67, near I-94. We meet at 10 a.m.
