

The St. Joan of Arc Wednesday News

Character † Academic Excellence † Servitude † Spiritual Development

October 4, 2017

Dear Families,

Thank you to all of you that were able to participate in the Oconomowoc Homecoming Parade on Friday. All who were present had a great time. See a photo of the float below. Thank you to Liz Hoover for organizing our participation in the parade.

This weekend, October 7-8, we will be holding a bake sale after all Masses to benefit the St. Joan of Arc tuition assistance fund. Donating and/or purchasing baked goods for the bake sale is a great, fun way to support the school. Donate by bringing baked goods to the school tomorrow, Thursday, Oct. 5, or Friday, Oct. 6. The tuition assistance fund is also supported through the Soles for Catholic Education Walk. This year's walk will be on Saturday, October 21 at Mount Mary University. Register to walk with our team and raise funds for our school online at catholicschoolswalk.org. Every dollar raised stays with St. Joan of Arc School and is used to support financial assistance at the school.

As we continue to focus on our uniform this year, a couple of reminders. Please remember that only white, hunter, navy, and yellow polo shirts are part of our dress code. Also, with the beginning of October, shorts are no longer part of our uniform unless a special exception and announcement is made due to weather. Thank you for your help with this.

Next week Thursday and Friday there is no school for the convention days. Teachers will spend the days going to conferences with other teachers and administrators in the Archdiocese and having time to work on some of our local school efforts as well.

Friday, October 20 will be Grandparents' Day at St. Joan of Arc. See the separate letter for more information and remember to return the permission portion. Please note there will be no after school care on that date.

God's Blessings! Mrs. Holly Cerveney

Are YOU smarter than a Catholic school student?

Last week: Constantine first made it legal to practice Christianity

This week's question: Constantine made Christianity legal in Rome, but which emperor made Christianity Rome's official religion?

Congratulations to our FROG Award winners: Makenzie Drier, Eric Hu, Alaina Kwiatkowski, and Liam Wagner!
