Thoughts on First Holy Communion

This Sunday we will celebrate the First Holy Communion for ten young members of our parish. Congratulations and God's blessings to them and their families! Below is an article entitled "Why a Child's First Holy Communion is a Big Deal" by Whitney Hetzel, a wife, mother of nine children and a catechist. Her article, dated 22 April 2017, is on the Catholic Company website

"As Catholics, we know that the Holy Eucharist is the source and summit of our faith: it is the Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity of Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Pope Francis has called it the "Sacrament of Love": "The Eucharist is at the heart of 'Christian initiation', together with Baptism and Confirmation, and it constitutes the source of the Church's life itself. From this Sacrament of love, in fact, flows every authentic journey of faith, of communion, and of witness."

For children who are preparing to receive their First Holy Communion, this is a big deal. And for all of us, no matter how many times we have received Our Lord in the Holy Eucharist, it should always be a big deal. What makes it so special the first time is the same thing that makes it special every time! Jesus comes to us in a unique way in the Eucharist. When He comes, we receive Him into our body and our soul. This is very beautiful, personal, and intimate. We should not take it for granted!

This is why the first time a family member makes their Holy Communion, it is an exciting event for the whole family. The boy or girl preparing for this sacrament is going to be profoundly united with Jesus in a way that they never have before! It is such a holy, joyful occasion. Our souls become the bride of Christ. That is why girls wear white dresses and boys wear suits. Relatives are invited. Parents take pictures. We celebrate.

And the very act of celebrating reveals our belief in the True Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist.

Unfortunately, for many of us Catholics, First Holy Communion has become simply a rite of passage. The essence of the celebration is lost among the parties and gifts. "Parties and gifts are fine," says one priest, "as long as the focus never strays from what the celebration is truly about." First Holy Communion is, without question, a time of great joy. The saints in heaven, who are delighted to intercede for us, are celebrating along with your family.

"You come to me," says St. Maximillian Kolbe to Jesus, speaking for all of us, "and unite Yourself intimately to me under the form of nourishment...What miracles! Who would have ever imagined such!" St. Mother Teresa also has words for you and your family: "Jesus has made Himself the Bread of Life to give us life. Night and day, He is there. If you really want to grow in love, come back to the Eucharist..." Yes, the celebration of a child's First Holy Communion IS a big deal. Don't let anyone tell you otherwise."

Divine Mercy Service

We will have a Divine Mercy Service on Sunday, 28 April, at 1:30 P.M. It will consist of Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, praying the Divine Mercy Chaplet and concluding with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. Everyone is welcome.

Pensamientos en la Primera Comunión

Este domingo celebraremos la primera Santa Comunión para diez jóvenes miembros de nuestra parroquia. ¡Felicitaciones y bendiciones de Dios a ellos y a sus familias! A continuación se muestra un artículo titulado "Por Qué la Primera Comunión de un Niño es un Gran Asunto" por Whitney Hetzel, una esposa, madre de nueve hijos y un catequista. Su artículo, de fecha 22 de abril de 2017, está en el sitio web de la Compañía Católica.

"Como católicos, sabemos que la Santa Eucaristía es la fuente y cumbre de nuestra fe: es el Cuerpo, la Sangre, el Alma y la Divinidad de Nuestro Señor y Salvador Jesucristo. El Papa Francisco lo ha llamado el "Sacramento del amor": "La Eucaristía está en el corazón de la ' iniciación cristiana ', junto con el bautismo y la confirmación, y constituye la fuente de la vida misma de la iglesia. De este Sacramento de amor, de hecho, fluye cada auténtico viaje de fe, de comunión, y de testimonio."

Para los niños que se están preparando para recibir su Primera Comunión, esto es un gran asunto. Y para todos nosotros, no importa cuántas veces hayamos recibido a Nuestro Señor en la Santa Eucaristía, siempre debe ser un gran asunto. Lo que lo hace tan especial la primera vez es lo mismo que lo hace especial cada vez Jesús viene a nosotros de una manera única en la Eucaristía. Cuando él venga, lo recibiremos en nuestro cuerpo y en nuestra alma. Esto es muy hermoso, personal, e íntimo. ¡No debemos dar por sentado!

Es por eso que la primera vez que un miembro de la familia hace su Santa Comunión, es un evento emocionante para toda la familia. ¡El niño o niña que se prepara para este Sacramento va a estar profundamente unido con Jesús de una manera que nunca antes habían tenido! Es una ocasión tan santa y gozosa. Nuestras almas se convierten en la novia de Cristo. Es por eso que las niñas usan vestidos blancos y los niños usan trajes. Los parientes están invitados. Los padres toman fotos. Celebramos. Y el acto mismo de celebrar revela nuestra creencia en la verdadera presencia de Jesús en la Eucaristía.

Desafortunadamente, para muchos de nosotros los católicos, la Primera Comunión se ha convertido simplemente en un rito de paso. La esencia de la celebración se pierde entre las fiestas y los regalos. "Las fiestas y los regalos están bien", dice un sacerdote, "siempre y cuando el enfoque nunca se aleje de lo que realmente es la celebración". La primera comunión es, sin duda, un tiempo de gran gozo. Los santos en el cielo, que están encantados de interceder por nosotros, están celebrando junto con su familia.

"Venid a mí", dice San Maximilian Kolbe a Jesús, hablando por todos nosotros, "y uníos íntimamente a mí bajo la forma de alimento... ¡Qué milagros! ¿Quién hubiera imaginado alguna vez tal!" Santa Madre Teresa también tiene palabras para usted y su familia: "Jesús ha hecho el pan de vida para darnos vida. Día y noche, él está allí. Si realmente quieres crecer en el amor, vuelve a la Eucaristía..." Sí, la celebración de la Primera Comunión de un niño ES un gran asunto. No dejes que nadie te diga lo contrario.

Servicio de Divina Misericordia

Tendremos un Servicio de Divina Misericordia el domingo, 28 de abril, a la 1:30 P.M. Consistirá en la Exposición del Santísimo Sacramento, orando la Coronilla de la Divina Misericordia y concluyendo con la Bendición del Santísimo Sacramento. Todo el mundo es bienvenido.
