TRUSTEE NOMINEES

Jane Putskey

Mark and I were married at St. Joseph Parish in 1989 and we are long time active members of the church. We are both Eucharistic ministers. I served as a CCD teacher for many years and presently serve as a substitute CCD teacher. I have a background in banking, working as a legal secretary and Clerk of Circuit Court for Waushara County. Presently, I am self-employed as a corporate guardian helping people to live their best life and taking care of their finances.

Dennis Callewaert

Dennis Callewaert was born and raised a cradle Catholic in Racine Wisconsin attending St Joseph Catholic Grade School and St Catherine's High School. Before retirement in 2006 Dennis was a Global IT Director for over 10 years managing IT staffing and budgeting for over 30 international SCJ Company Locations. Upon retirement, Dennis moved to Redgranite with his wife Chris. Dennis & Chris joined St Joseph's Parish in September 2018 after Chris was diagnosed with Acute Myeloid Leukemia (AML). As Chris continued to fight her battle with cancer, she expressed a desire for their civil marriage in 1982 to be convalidated in the Catholic Church. In November Chris would say that was one of the happiest days of her life when she received all the sacraments and their marriage was convalidated. Chris lost her battle with cancer in January 2019 but after coming into the church she was at peace and knew she was transitioning into Eternal Life to be with Our Lord. Dennis would be honored to serve fellow parishioners as the Treasurer Trustee, with already having participating with the Parish Mission Planning Project and the Alpha Program Training. In Dennis' free time he enjoys working outdoors and wood crafting for family, friends, and charitable fundraisers. Dennis has a grown stepson Wade who lives in the Racine area.

Mark your calendars now!! Our Parish Festival is on Sunday, July 21st this year.

Some of the new things that have been added to our Festival are; a petting zoo for the little ones, and music by Genesee Depot under the tent.

Evergreen Campsite will again have train rides, a big thank you to them!

We can always use volunteers for a variety of positions. If you are available to help that day, even for a small time, please contact Dan or Diane Mrkvicka at 920-622-3639.

Thank you!

We are still accepting (and in need of) donations / sponsors to help out with the expenses that come with having a fun Festival. Thank you again!

BASKET RAFFLE

Thank you to those who are working on a basket full of goodies for our Basket Raffle. There is no limit to what you can put in the basket; food, toys, bath essentials, kitchen/baking supplies, etc. So use your imagination and fill up a basket! Thanks!

"2019 Golden Inspiration"

The Mission Society has completed another beautiful quilt for their annual raffle. Displaying the raffle are: Linda Cummings, Helen France, Joan Hau, MaryAnn Nero, Mary Albert and Patty Hart. (Not pictured Patsy Koenings) The quilt is queen size.

Raffle tickets are available from Mission ladies or in the parish office. Thank you for supporting our projects, The Mission Society

We will hold the election of Trustees the weekend of June 29/30 after all the Masses. There will be a ballot box in the Gathering Space for you to cast your vote.

Thoughts on Trinity Sunday

THE TRINITY

Here is an excerpt from an article titled: “Trinity Sunday: A Reflection”, by Fr. Thomas Kocik, dated 30 May 2015, on 1P5—One Peter 5 website:

The sacred liturgy begins and ends with the sign of the cross made in the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. But how often do we think of ourselves as deeply and intimately related to each of the divine Persons, as adopted children of the Father precisely by reason of our union with the Son by the gift of the Spirit?

...The Christian life is essentially a trinitarian life. In baptism, that sacrament of faith which incorporates us into the mystical body of Christ and so into the new relationships to Father, Son, and Holy Spirit... The Christian is privileged to know God as He is in Himself because the Word was made flesh. Christ is above all the revelation of the Father. The Father has predestined us from eternity to sonship (and daughtership) in His only Son, a vocation given in virtue of Christ’s life, death, resurrection and ascension. Through the power of the Holy Spirit—the Spirit of Christ sent by Christ and the Father—man is adopted as son; his new life of grace will be a journey to the Father, through the Son, in the Holy Spirit...

Having been made sharers of the divine nature through baptism, we now partake of God’s Life through faith and charity. The Father has first given the Son all that He (the Father) is, retaining only His relation of fatherhood as His personal distinction. The Son loves the Father perfectly, and this mutual love is personal: the Holy Spirit who proceeds from both Father and Son as from one source, by means of love. The Spirit is the bond of the mutual knowledge and self-giving of Father and Son.

All this is a communion of love. We are taken up into this Life through the Church’s liturgy, beginning with baptism. We are called to return to the Father through the Son in the Holy Spirit. As you listen to precise language of the Preface this Sunday, bear in mind that, at bottom, it’s all about Love—the Love who created us, who destroyed death’s power over us, and who calls us to an eternity of love with Himself.

Thoughts on Father’s Day

Here is an excerpt from an article titled: “This Father’s Day: Vow to be a Committed Catholic Father”, by Matthew James Christoff, dated 17 June 2018, on The Catholic World Report website:

For Catholic men, rather than just a day of only happy moments, Father’s Day should include a sober reflection on each man’s commitment to Catholic fatherhood. The sad fact is large numbers of men are failing at their duties as Catholic fathers. Christ expects Catholic fathers to seek holiness and perfection as each Catholic man will ultimately face the King and give an accounting for how he shepherded his children. This is a call for Catholic men to prayerfully assess their effectiveness as fathers for Christ on Father’s Day and vow to become Committed Catholic Fathers.

...The Committed Catholic Father is the model of Catholic fatherhood, attempting to fully live out the truth and mercy of Christ in a balanced way. He not only is highly devout in his commitment to know Jesus Christ, but he enthusiastically leads (with his wife) the family in prayer, scripture, the sacraments, catechesis of the faith and in acts of mercy to serve those in need. He has a rich Catholic faith life and has built strong bonds of brotherhood with other Catholic fathers in his parish, men of faith who help build his faith...

The Committed Catholic Father ensures that his children know the fullness of the truth of the Catholic faith, ensuring that his children come to have a deep knowledge, love and a personal relationship with Jesus Christ who is Truth itself. He personally engages in the catechesis of his children at home and may help mentor and teach the Catholic faith to other young people in the parish. The Committed Catholic Father seeks to demonstrate Christ’s mercy in overt ways to his children by actively loving their mother and each of them.

Most importantly, the Committed Catholic Father relies on the supernatural power from the graces of the Sacraments and his own diligent efforts in the never-ending ascent towards living the perfect balance of Christ’s truth and mercy in all his dealings with his family.

Pensamientos sobre la Santísima Trinidad

Aquí hay un extracto de un artículo titulado: "Domingo de la Santísima Trinidad: Una Reflexión," por el Padre Thomas Kocik, de fecha 30 de mayo de 2015, en 1P5 — un de Peter 5 sitio web:

... La vida cristiana es esencialmente una vida trinitaria. En el bautismo, ese sacramento de fe que nos incorpora al cuerpo místico de Cristo y así a las nuevas relaciones con Padre, Hijo y Espíritu Santo... El cristiano tiene el privilegio de conocer a Dios como él está en sí mismo, porque la palabra se hizo carne. Cristo es sobre todo la revelación del Padre. El Padre nos ha predestinado desde la eternidad a la filiación (y a la hija) en su único hijo, una vocación dada en virtud de la vida, muerte, resurrección y ascensión de Cristo. Por el poder del Espíritu Santo — el Espíritu de Cristo enviado por Cristo y el Padre — el hombre es adoptado como hijo; su nueva vida de gracia será un viaje al Padre, por medio del Hijo, en el Espíritu Santo...

Habiendo sido hechos partícipes de la naturaleza divina a través del bautismo, ahora participamos de la vida de Dios por medio de la fe y la caridad. El Padre ha dado primero al Hijo todo lo que él (el Padre) es, conservando sólo su relación de paternidad como su distinción personal. El Hijo ama al padre a la perfección, y este amor mutuo es personal: el Espíritu Santo que procede del Padre y del Hijo como de una fuente, por medio del amor. El Espíritu es el vínculo del conocimiento mutuo y el don de sí de Padre e Hijo.

Todo esto es una comunión de amor. Somos llevados a esta vida a través de la liturgia de la iglesia, comenzando con el bautismo. Estamos llamados a regresar al Padre por medio del Hijo en el Espíritu Santo. Al escuchar el lenguaje preciso del prefacio este domingo, ten en cuenta que, en la parte inferior, todo se trata del amor — el amor que nos creó, que destruyó el poder de la muerte sobre nosotros, y que nos llama a una eternidad de amor consigo mismo.

Pensamientos sobre el Día del Padre

Aquí hay un extracto de un artículo titulado: "El Día de este Padre: Jura ser un Padre Católico Comprometido", por Matthew James Christoff, de fecha 17 de junio de 2018, en el sitio web del Informe Mundial Católico:

Para los hombres católicos, en lugar de sólo un día de momentos felices, el Día del Padre debe incluir una reflexión sobria sobre el compromiso de cada hombre con la paternidad católica. El triste hecho es que un gran número de hombres están fallando en sus deberes como padres católicos. Cristo espera que los padres católicos busquen la santidad y la perfección, ya que cada hombre católico finalmente enfrentará al rey y dará una contabilidad de cómo enseñar a sus hijos. Este es un llamado para que los hombres católicos evalúen con oración su efectividad como padres de Cristo en el día del padre y se comprometan a convertirse en padres católicos comprometidos.

... El padre católico comprometido es el modelo de la paternidad católica, tratando de vivir plenamente la verdad y la misericordia de Cristo de una manera equilibrada. Él no sólo es muy devoto en su compromiso de conocer a Jesucristo, sino que dirige con entusiasmo (con su esposa) a la familia en la oración, la escritura, los sacramentos, la catequesis de la fe y en los actos de misericordia para servir a los necesitados. Tiene una rica vida de fe católica y ha construido fuertes lazos de hermandad con otros padres católicos en su parroquia, hombres de fe que ayudan a edificar su fe...

El padre católico comprometido asegura que sus hijos conozcan la plenitud de la verdad de la fe católica, asegurando que sus hijos vengan a tener un profundo conocimiento, amor y una relación personal con Jesucristo que es la verdad misma. Se dedica personalmente a la catequesis de sus hijos en el hogar y puede ayudar a orientar y enseñar la fe católica a otros jóvenes de la parroquia. El padre católico comprometido busca demostrar la misericordia de Cristo de manera muy profunda a sus hijos al amar activamente a su madre y a cada uno de ellos.

Lo más importante, el padre católico comprometido confía en el poder sobrenatural de las gracias de los sacramentos y sus propios esfuerzos diligentes en el ascenso interminable hacia vivir el equilibrio perfecto de la verdad y la misericordia de Cristo en todos sus tratos con su familia.

El programa de verano está por comenzar

Nuestro programa de catecismo comienza el 16 de junio de 2019 las clases se impartirán los domingos de 10:15 a.m. y concluirán con la misa dominical. Las edades para poder iniciar el catecismo primera Comunión 8 años cumplidos, Confinación 16 años cumplidos. Los estudiantes tienen que cursar dos/2 veranos de catecismo para poder recibir los sacramentos. Si necesitas una forma de registración comunícate con Lupe Cervantes.
