The Days are Coming

Separation, isolation, and hostility are terrible things. We are, sadly, too familiar with all of them in our modern life, whether we look at world events or events in our own neighborhoods and families. All three readings today refer to these same sad human conditions.

The prophet Jeremiah describes world conditions as if the people of his time were sheep who had been scattered by poor leadership and corrupt shepherds. But “the days are coming,” he assures us (Jeremiah 23:5), when a new shepherd, a just king, will come. We meet that king in the second reading and the Gospel. Paul reminds us in the Letter to the Ephesians that all divisions can now cease in Christ Jesus, who has brought us together through his blood. In Mark’s Gospel we see Jesus himself, looking with pity on those searching for him as if they were sheep without a shepherd.

Mission Statement of Our Lady of the Rosary

We, the Parish of Our Lady of the Rosary, are a pilgrim church. Under the mantle of the Blessed Virgin Mary, we grow as a people of God following Jesus, celebrating the Eucharist, living apostolic service, continuing faith formation and Marian devotions.

We strive to bring the joy of the gospel and imitate Jesus through compassion, mercy and love, especially for the poor and marginalized. We seek to be faithful stewards providing a heart and home for all.

Prayer for The Eternal Rest

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

The apostles gathered together with Jesus; and they reported to him all that they had done and taught. And he said to them, "Come away by yourselves to a secluded place and rest a while." Mk 6:30-31

Mosaic Floor Medallions Part 3

The Baptism of Jesus in the river Jordan.
(Matthew 3:13-17)

Meditation

Jesus appeared in the Jordan and insisted John the Baptist baptize Him. As this occurs, the Holy Spirit descended upon Him in the form of a dove while the Father proclaimed, "This is my beloved Son."

July 7, 2021 the first two mosaic tiles were installed in the church. Carole and her husband, Milad brought the tiles from her studio to Our lady of the Rosary.

Pictured to the left, The Baptism of Christ has been gently laid in place and is being positioned by the artist and installers. Watching the process is Fr. Joe, who is recording live for parishioners on Facebook and Mike Stivers making her own recording.

To the left, Carole is writing a message on the back of the mosaic. Pictured below is the message Carole wrote.

Carole the artist who created the Mosaics

Inspired by the beauty of modern art, Carole Choucair Oueijan, born in 1966 in Beirut, Lebanon, faithfully reflected her Lebanese-Greek heritage in her art. Her journey into the world of impressionism began as ingenuous sketches at a very tender age and was further sculpted through academic education and training at YWCA College-Beirut, Lebanon, where she studied Interior Design for a period of three years, after which she graduated with high distinction. After her graduation, however, Carole discovered her real passion for painting, so she attended the Institut Nationale des Beaux Arts-The Lebanese University, and completed her Bachelor of Art Degree.

Her oil paintings speak loudly of the rural and suburban symbols of her home land and are a collection of portraits, settings, architectural contours, and nautical panoramas, all unique in their harmony of color and degree of serenity and sublimity, all the reason why she was invited to exhibit her work in several art exhibitions and galleries in Lebanon, where she received positive reviews and commendation from art critics and from admirers of her art.

Carole's portrayal of the Mediterranean life carried her to Greece in 1989, where her family roots extend. There, she grew fond of the almost extinct art of Mosaics. In Greece Carole learned the essential skills of classical mosaic art at the hands of Greek clergymen devoted to preserve the art of creating religious icons. However, Carole took this exceptional art into a different terrain when she moved to California in 1990. There, Carole was awarded a prize from the National Institute of Watercolor in 1992. By tallying her artistic creativity and her impressionistic oil painting techniques, she began crafting exceptional mosaics art pieces with three dimensional effects, using stones such as marble-smalti combination, which brought her mosaic art pieces closer to the modern age and added a layer of innovation and captivating charm to her art pieces.

The Wedding at Cana
(John 2:1-12)

Meditation

When Christ changed water into wine, we see you, Mary, in guise of a teacher and intercessor, as you urge the servants to do what Jesus commands.

FEAST OF FAITH - The Prayer Over the Offerings

In the liturgy of the 1570 Missal, this prayer was called the "secret" prayer. It was "secret" not because its content was mysterious, but because it was prayed in silence by the priest, who only recited the conclusion aloud: . . . per omnia saecula saeculorum. With the reforms of the Second Vatican Council, we again hear these rich prayers spoken aloud. They remind us to prepare ourselves for what is to happen in the Eucharistic Prayer, for it is not only the bread and wine that will be transformed.

The Prayer Over the Offerings is a prayer for transformation, an expression, in a few words, of all that we hope that the liturgy will accomplish in our lives. We ask God to accept the gifts we present, and to change us even as God hallows the bread and wine. As we listen carefully to the Prayer Over the Offerings, we are reminded of what it is that we seek in the Eucharist: to be made holy; to be drawn closer to God; to come to eternal joy, unity, peace, and salvation.

When Jesus saw a huge crowd of people, "his heart was moved with pity for them, for they were like sheep without a shepherd" (Mark 6:34). Draw lines to match the shepherd puzzle pieces to their sheep. Then match your name to your Shepherd's name.

Behold, the days are coming, says the LORD, when I will raise up a righteous shoot to David. — Jeremiah 23:5a

The Angelus Prayer

V. The Angel of the Lord declared to Mary: R. And she conceived the power of the Holy Spirit. Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee; blessed art thou among women and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death. Amen. V. Behold the handmaid of the Lord: R. Be it done unto me according to Thy word. Hail Mary... V. And the Word was made Flesh: (Kneel) R. And dwelt among us. Hail Mary... V. Pray for us, O Holy Mother of God, R. that we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Let us pray:

Pour forth, we beseech Thee, O Lord, Thy grace into our hearts; that we, to whom the incarnation of Christ, Thy Son, was made known by the message of an angel, may by His Passion and Cross be brought to the glory of His Resurrection, through the same Christ Our Lord. Amen.

THE APOSTLE TO THE APOSTLES

July 22 is the feast of St. Mary Magdalene. In 2016 Pope Francis changed the celebration of the life of this follower of Jesus from a memorial, a time when the Church remembers the life of a person, to a feast, a time when the Church recognizes a person's valuable contribution to the life of faith. Feast days honor saints of particular significance, such as the apostles and the evangelists. Changing Mary Magdalene's memorial to a feast reminds us that she was an important follower and supporter of Jesus. She is also called the Apostle to the Apostles, a title that reminds us that Mary, the first to discover the empty tomb and see the risen Jesus, ran from the place of death to bring the good news to the apostles that Jesus was alive (John 20:1-18).

Many other women followed Jesus and helped spread his message.

Match the names of these women with their descriptions.

Fill in the blanks with the names of women you know and match the last two descriptions with them.

Mary (Luke 1:26-27, 30-31)

She was Mary's cousin and greeted Mary as "the mother of my Lord" even before Jesus was born.

Elizabeth (Luke 1:39-40)

Jesus asked her for a drink of water. She believed he was the promised Messiah and went to tell her whole town about him.

These two women helped support Jesus' ministry.

Mary & Martha (Luke 10:38-42)

She is the mother of Jesus, the Mother of God.

Samaritan woman at the well (John 4:1-42)

These two sisters, good friends of Jesus, lived with their brother, Lazarus.

A woman I know who follows Jesus

Joanna & Susanna (Luke 8:1-3)

A woman I know who teaches me about Jesus
