Prayer to Madonna del Paradiso

O Mary, beautiful Mother of the Lord and my Mother, turn your compassionate gaze to me too with maternal tenderness. If you open your eyes upon me, as from prodigious sources the most abundant graces of the Redemption will descend into my soul. Light the way to my exile, O Star of the Sea. Lead my spiritual battles to victory, O most powerful Virgin. Show me your Jesus in the Eucharistic Scripture, O Mother of beautiful love. Transfigure my life, Immaculate Conception, into your supernatural beauty. Strengthen my faith so that everywhere you teach it and defend it with example and word, O Queen of the Apostles. Give me the generosity to carry my cross with joy to the top of Calvary, O Mother of the Crucified. You who hear everyone, and intercede eternal health even to children who do not pray to you, save me too, oh merciful Mother, who invoke you with the most filial and trusting love. The last name that I will pronounce while dying, be your name, O Mary, and the first face that I will meet at the door of heaven, be yours, oh sweet Queen of Heaven.

Mission Statement of Our Lady of the Rosary

We, the Parish of Our Lady of the Rosary, are a pilgrim church. Under the mantle of the Blessed Virgin Mary, we grow as a people of God following Jesus, celebrating the Eucharist, living apostolic service, continuing faith formation and Marian devotions. We strive to bring the joy of the gospel and imitate Jesus through compassion, mercy and love, especially for the poor and marginalized. We seek to be faithful stewards providing a heart and home for all.

About Us

PORTERS OF SAINT JOSEPH

The Porters of Saint Joseph is a volunteer apostolate with the mission to provide a safe environment at our Church so the parishioners can worship God in peace and security at Sunday mass. If you have prior experience in law enforcement, the military, security, or just a servant heart for the Church, then the Porters of St. Joseph are for you. This is the perfect opportunity for men in this parish who have felt the call to get involved, but have not yet found the opportunity to put their courageous, heroic, masculine heart at the service of their parish, while at the same time, forming a bond of Christian brotherhood with like-minded men.

Get Trained

Take part in quarterly training offered by professionals in self-defense, de-escalation, critical incident response, and church safety.

The Miraculous Madonna del Paradiso

The Actual shrine of the Madonna Paradiso was designed by Bishop De La Torre and was inaugurated on November 8, 1808. The Shrine was constructed upon a small church dedicated in the 1500's to Our Lady of the Rosary. The painted image of the Madonna is a life size bust whose artisan was Sabastian Conca. The painting is encased in a marble-like frame balanced with 2 angels on each side. (pictured above)

In Mazara, a liturgy and mass is celebrated on November 4 of each year. On the second Sunday of each July there is a procession followed by thousands of people as the Madonna's image is taken from church to church.

There has been a following for the Madonna del Paradiso in Mazara since the beginning of the 18th century. The Ligurian priests were asked to follow a spiritual study that was two-months long and was led by Monsignor Orazio De La Torre. De La Torre, originally from Palermo, was assigned to the Diocese of Mazara del Vallo for 19 years. In the second half of the spiritual exercise, the participants were praying within the chapel of the holy temple where the painted image of the Madonna del Paradiso was kept. At approximately 9 pm on November 3, 1797, the eyes on the painting, which were painted skyward, miraculously moved and focused on the participants in the chapel. The eye movements repeated several times during the evening, astonishing the people who were present.

Later, the painting of the Madonna was moved to the Cathedral in Mazara. This move was accompanied by thousands of Mazaresi processing and praying. During the vigil that followed and throughout the next day, the people were astonished—the eyes of the painted image continued to move! This miraculous experience was repeated on the paintings at the monasteries of St. Catherine, St. Veneranda and St. Michael's.

From December 10, 1797, through the month of June 1798, the Bishop ordered an investigation to prove the validity of the unimaginable reports. When the Bishop himself witnessed the miracle, he applied to the Vatican for the coronation of the Madonna. On April 10, 1803, the image was decreed and coronated by the Vatican.

The eye movements reoccurred on October 20, 1807, as testified by Don Giuseppe Marie Tomasi of the royal family of Lampedusa. More reports of the miracle are recorded for the years 1810, 1811, 1866, and at various other times. The last recorded movement was observed in the Cathedral in 1981.

The celebration in San Diego

Locally, we tailor this tradition by having our beautiful image of the Madonna taken to individual homes for 9 days in the first half of November. Families and friends gather and pray the rosary each day at a different home. Members of the society volunteer to host the event which is often celebrated by a meal or dessert at the end of the evening. This is a wonderful opportunity to share our tradition and exchange stories about our faith. It is also customary to pin monetary donations on the blue ribbon attached to the image during the visitations and festa celebration.

Now, the beautiful the image in the church is encased in a custom made Vara that was designed by Leonardo Ingrande. The original founder of The Society del Paradiso was Jerry Ingrande. He asked the priest to allow the image that was brought to America in the early 1900's to be displayed in the church. Sara Asaro Terramagra donated the portrait to the church and it has been safely preserved by relatives in the Zottolo Frontiero family. It is important to note that it was a collaborative effort among many people especially with the assistance of a devoted parish member known as La Contessa (Josie Sciuto) who played a key role in convincing Monsignor Trevasani to agree to place the image in the church. We will always be grateful for those before us who made it possible to carry on the meaningful devotional tradition as it is done in Mazara. We continue to embrace it today with the significant contributions and unending support of our Society members.

Gospel Summary

It is clear from this passage in Luke’s Gospel that when the world ends, some terrifying events will occur. The clear message, however, is that we should not face these events with apprehension, but rather with trust — trust that God wants us to have everlasting life with him. Instead of being afraid, we are called to find strength and courage in God’s love and persevere in our faith.

Reflection for Families

Today’s Gospel makes it clear that we should persevere in our faith and be faithful disciples. We are most responsible for evangelizing our own children. There is an expression, “Faith is caught, not taught.” How do our children see us live out our faith? How do we witness the greatness of God’s love and our personal response to that love? Share with your child(ren) what it means for you to walk with Jesus.

Bringing the Gospel Into Your Family

Find a copy of Thunder Cake by Patricia Polacco at the library or Owl Babies by Martin Waddell. Read the book as a family and talk about who was there when someone was afraid. Ask one another who helps us when we’re afraid? The answers may be predictable or you might be surprised. In either case, it’s good to remind one another that Jesus is always with us . . . especially when we are afraid.

Discussion Questions

- Once I was really afraid, but I found comfort when . . .
- The most challenging part of my witnessing for Jesus was when . . .
- My faith is strongest when . . .

Prayer

Grant us, we pray, O Lord our God,
 the constant gladness of being devoted to you,
 for it is full and lasting happiness to serve with constancy
 the author of all that is good. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
 God, for ever and ever. Amen

The End of Days

As we prepare for next Sunday’s feast of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe, we hear descriptions of dire and catastrophic events. Sometimes it seems as though we ourselves are living in the end times, when life as we currently know it will cease for everyone. In answer to what must have been a fearful question, Jesus does not sugarcoat his foretelling of future days. Nor does the Old Testament prophet Malachi flinch from his pronouncements upon an evil world. Saint Paul, still writing to the Thessalonians, warns them prophetically against succumbing to “The End Is Near” syndrome—indolence in the face of the final days. However, both Jesus and Malachi speak of the recompense for living a just life—healing and vindication. Our Psalm 98, typically associated with Christmastime, helps us to rejoice for the King who is coming to rule with justice.

The Angelus Prayer

- V. The Angel of the Lord declared to Mary:
 R. And she conceived the power of the Holy Spirit.
 Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee; blessed art thou among women and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death. Amen.
- V. Behold the handmaid of the Lord:
 R. Be it done unto me according to Thy word.
 Hail Mary...
- V. And the Word was made Flesh: (Kneel)
 R. And dwelt among us.
 Hail Mary...
- V. Pray for us, O Holy Mother of God,
 R. that we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Let us pray:

Pour forth, we beseech Thee, O Lord, Thy grace into our hearts; that we, to whom the incarnation of Christ, Thy Son, was made known by the message of an angel, may by His Passion and Cross be brought to the glory of His Resurrection, through the same Christ Our Lord.
 Amen.

PRAYING TWICE

The Academy of Music (Accademia Nazionale di Santa Cecilia) was founded in Rome by Pope Sixtus V in 1585. Named for St. Cecilia, it was established under the invocation of the Blessed Virgin; Pope St. Gregory I, credited as the author of Gregorian chant; and St. Cecilia, the patron saint of music and musicians. The Academy's first location was the Church of Santa Maria ad Martyres, also known as the Pantheon. You can see pictures of its beautiful auditorium online.

On November 22 we remember St. Cecilia. Many choirs and music societies are named in honor of St. Cecilia and look to her as their patron. Is there a window or picture or statue of St. Cecilia in your church? Does your parish have a choir? Do you know how many members it has? What instruments help make music at your church? What is your favorite hymn to sing with the choir?

St. Augustine said, "The one who sings prays twice." What do you think he meant?

You might hear some of these instruments in a church. Color the ones that you have heard in your parish. Choose one to draw on the front of a card. Inside, write a note to the director of your choir describing how much you appreciate the music they provide. You can present your card to the choir directly after Mass one day or send it to your parish office. Remember, you are a member of the Church and so are responsible—with the choir or cantor—for much of the sung prayer at Mass.
