Mission Statement of Our Lady of the Rosary

We, the Parish of Our Lady of the Rosary, are a pilgrim church. Under the mantle of the Blessed Virgin Mary, we grow as a people of God following Jesus, celebrating the Eucharist, living apostolic service, continuing faith formation and Marian devotions.

We strive to bring the joy of the gospel and imitate Jesus through compassion, mercy and love, especially for the poor and marginalized. We seek to be faithful stewards providing a heart and home for all.

God's Word for Children

Jesus came to show people a new way to live.
When our hearts are filled with God's love,
it changes our thoughts and actions.
We become different—kinder, more loving and trusting.
Color only the spaces below that have a heart.
They will show what we become because Jesus loves us.

Fourth Sunday of Lent
Jesus told a story about a young man who left his father's house (Luke 15:1-3, 11-32). He foolishly spent all his money, until he had no food and only the clothes on his back. He returned home, hoping his father would hire him as a worker. But his father forgave him and lovingly welcomed his son back! Follow the letter trail from the son to the overjoyed father. Highlight a word that appears five times in the trail.

Gospel Summary

Today's Gospel is the well-known story of the prodigal son who begged for his share of the family inheritance. He took his fortune to a far away place and quickly spent all he had on his personal pleasures. He was completely broke when a serious famine struck the area and he was forced to tend pigs, an occupation prohibited to Jewish people. As he tended the pigs, he hungered for their scraps and realized that his father's slaves lived better than he did. It was then that he decided to return home, not as a son, but as a hired hand. So happy was the man's father when he saw his son return that he celebrated with all sorts of signs of honor. The father's older son, however, was very displeased with the way his father treated his brother, claiming that he had always been there working like a slave for his father. Never once had the father celebrated with this son. The father explained that the older son had always been with him and obedient. It was cause to rejoice, however, that his other son had been lost but now was found.

Reflection for Families

Parents try to divide the world into equal pieces for each of their children, but they know how very different each child can be. There are really no "one-size-fits-all" sets of expectations for families with more than one child. This Gospel helps us remember that we need to recognize the virtues of obedience and faithfulness, while we still love unconditionally and forgive the child who challenges us. Both brothers in this story considered themselves slaves—a feeling we work hard to prevent in our children.

Bringing the Gospel Into Your Family

This parable about the prodigal son is a story about families and filled with emotion. Gather all your loose family photos and organize them into an album. (If you're lucky enough to be up to date, go through your photo albums.) As you arrange the photos, talk about your memory of that picture and the emotions that you associate with its circumstances. When you have finished, decide which emotion most characterizes your family. Are you pleased with this defining emotion or is this a good time to work on some changes?

Prayer

Fourth Sunday of Lent

O God, who through your Word reconcile the human race to yourself in a wonderful way, grant, we pray, that with prompt devotion and eager faith the Christian people may hasten toward the solemn celebrations to come. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

Lost & Found

The parable of the father and his sons is one of the most familiar of all of Jesus' stories. The father in the parable is lavish in forgiveness and revels in the return of his young son, who was lost and now is found. The older son is also lost—lost in his refusal to forgive, lost in his failure to grasp his father's generous spirit. The Israelites spent many years lost in the desert, seeking the land of milk and honey, yet often failing to seek the God who delivered and fed them. We are sometimes lost as well. We lose sight of the Lord and the Lord's ways. God never loses sight of us, however. God waits, ready for us to come to our senses, ready to welcome us back with open arms.

The Angelus Prayer

V. The Angel of the Lord declared to Mary:

R. And she conceived the power of the Holy Spirit.

Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee; blessed art thou among women and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death. Amen.

V. Behold the handmaid of the Lord:

R. Be it done unto me according to Thy word.

Hail Mary...

V. And the Word was made Flesh: (Kneel)

R. And dwelt among us.

Hail Mary...

V. Pray for us, O Holy Mother of God,

R. that we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Let us pray:

Pour forth, we beseech Thee, O Lord, Thy grace into our hearts; that we, to whom the incarnation of Christ, Thy Son, was made known by the message of an angel, may by His Passion and Cross be brought to the glory of His Resurrection, through the same Christ Our Lord.

Amen.

LENTEN COMPANIONS: SIMON, VERONICA, THE WOMEN OF JERUSALEM

3 weeks to Easter: We travel with Simon,
Veronica, and the women of Jerusalem.

Today is called Laetare Sunday. Laetare is Latin for "Rejoice." The entrance antiphon at the beginning of today's Mass (from Isaiah 66:10) begins, "Rejoice, Jerusalem." Lent is half over and we have reason to have hope and rejoice.

Good friends are important. Friends who help us, who stand with us, make hard times easier. The story of Jesus' suffering includes people who helped him. When Jesus was weak and stumbling under the weight of the cross, Simon of Cyrene helped him carry it. Veronica wiped his weary face with her veil. Some women keeping watch along the road wept when they saw Jesus. He felt their love and support and tried to comfort them even in his own suffering. All of these helpers are remembered in the Stations of the Cross: Simon (station 5), Veronica (station 6), and the Women of Jerusalem (station 8).

How can these people be our companions? When we see our friends in need, we can try to be like Simon and help carry their burdens. We can be like Veronica and make them feel better or more comfortable. We can be like the women of Jerusalem: even if we can't make our friends' troubles disappear, we can share their burden of sorrow so they know they are not alone.

One day this week, make a visit to church and find these three stations.
Stand before each one and say a prayer. Think of friends who need your help today.
