Return to the Lord

Yet even now—oracle of the LORD—
return to me with your whole heart,
with fasting, weeping, and mourning.
Rend your hearts, not your garments,
and return to the LORD, your God,
For he is gracious and merciful,
slow to anger, abounding in steadfast love,
and relenting in punishment.

God's Word for Children

Paul wrote to the Philippians about going toward
"the prize of God's upward calling" for him
(Philippians 3:14).
Help this child reach his prize.
Pass the letters that spell BIBLE as you travel.
It's the name of God's holy book—
and where we'll find what Jesus calls us to do!

Fifth Sunday of Lent

A woman who had been caught committing a sin was brought to Jesus.
Jesus said that anyone who had never sinned
could throw the first stone at her.
Of course, no one could do that.
Start at the top row and follow the arrows
to color each stone with a star yellow.
Then write its letter onto the blanks
to see what Jesus told the woman.

Fifth Sunday of Lent

Gospel Summary

Although most scholars believe that this story of the woman caught in adultery was not part of John's original writings, it is nevertheless an excellent example of Jesus' style. First of all, some of the religious leaders tried to trick Jesus into going against the law of Moses by not having the woman stoned or going against the Roman law that did not allow the Jewish people to impose the death sentence. Again, Jesus seemed trapped, but drew in the sand with his finger until he presented his answer. In an effort to demonstrate the forgiveness God had for his people, Jesus challenged the Pharisees to throw a stone if they were without sin. Of course, none could throw a stone and slowly the crowd drifted away. When only the woman remained, Jesus showed mercy toward her and told her to resist further sin.

Reflection for Families

Of course we will never fully know what Jesus drew in the sand. Whether his drawing was with purpose or not has been lost to history and most likely would not change the story. An important lesson we can gain from his action is that he took the time to gather his thoughts before speaking. How often do we say the first thing that comes to mind and end up regretting it? Thinking first helps us present a Christ-like presence to others even if we are dealing with a serious conflict.

Bringing the Gospel Into Your Family

Ask each family member to help create a list of "pet peeves" or annoying habits in others. Give each member a chance to consider the list and see if they claim ownership of any of the actions listed. Ask one another how this exercise is like the woman and the Pharisees in today's Gospel. What will you do to "throw a stone" at the guilty person? What action can you take that resembles the action of Jesus? Pray for support to accomplish this action.

Discussion Starters

- I received a second chance that made a difference in my life when . . .
- One judgment I hold from the past still causes me pain. In order to let go if it, I need to . . .

Prayer

Fifth Sunday of Lent

By your help, we beseech you, Lord our God,
may we walk eagerly in that same charity
with which, out of love for the world,
your Son handed himself over to death.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God, for ever and ever.

Something New In Christ

Jesus knew that the scribes and Pharisees were trying to trap him. They put him in what seemed to be a no-win situation. Let the woman who was caught in adultery go, and he would have been accused of ignoring the law. Let her be stoned, and he would fail to show mercy toward her, contradicting his life's message. Jesus' response teaches three crucial lessons: none of us is free of sin; we are not the ultimate judges of others; Jesus is the mercy of God, in whom we can always trust. In Christ, God does something new. When we give our hearts to Christ, we have the hope of new life, a life in which mercy reigns.

The Angelus Prayer

V. The Angel of the Lord declared to Mary:

R. And she conceived the power of the Holy Spirit.

Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee; blessed art thou among women and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death. Amen.

V. Behold the handmaid of the Lord:

R. Be it done unto me according to Thy word.

Hail Mary...

V. And the Word was made Flesh: (Kneel)

R. And dwelt among us.

Hail Mary...

V. Pray for us, O Holy Mother of God,

R. that we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Let us pray:

Pour forth, we beseech Thee, O Lord, Thy grace into our hearts; that we, to whom the incarnation of Christ, Thy Son, was made known by the message of an angel, may by His Passion and Cross be brought to the glory of His Resurrection, through the same Christ Our Lord.

Amen.

LENTEN COMPANION:

ST. JOHN BAPTISTE DE LA SALLE

2 weeks to Easter:
We travel with St. John Baptiste de la Salle.

Today we remember the life and death of our Lenten companion St. John Baptiste de la Salle. Born in 1651 in Rheims, France, he died on Good Friday, April 7, 1719. John spent his life teaching the poor at a time when only rich families were able to send their children to school. He started a school for boys and began a program for training teachers.

At that time children were taught in Latin. If you didn't understand Latin you couldn't go to school to learn. John encouraged his teachers in France to teach students in their own language—French. Although he came from a rich family, he gave away his share of his family's fortune to the poor and hungry. He opened the first teacher's college as well as many schools for the poor in several different cities. John's group of teachers became known as the Brothers of the Christian Schools.

How can John be our companion? His story teaches us how important a Christian education is for everyone. What John did wasn't easy, but he never gave up. Our teachers today do the same for us. St. John helps us to appreciate the education we have been given.

This week take some time to thank your teachers for their hard work. As part of your Lenten fast, spend more time studying and less time on social media.

Fill in the areas on this report card in which you are doing well and note the ones in which you need help to do better.
