Loving God, as a mother gives life and nourishment to her children, so you give life and care for your Church. Bless all mothers. May they be strengthened as Christian mothers. Let the example of their faith and love shine forth. Grant that we, their sons and daughters, may honor and appreciate them with a spirit of profound respect. May the example of Mary, mother of Jesus, inspire them to live their vocation as Christian mothers and call their children to faith. Guide and protect them in challenging times and help them to continue to trust in you all the days of their life. Grant this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Reflection for Families

It is more accurate to think of Jesus' ascension as his being with us rather than his departing from us. As he promises in this scripture, the power of the Holy Spirit is with us to help us even though Jesus is no longer among us in his human form. Jesus remains by our side as a helper. We can show others that Jesus is with us by reflecting Jesus' love. In the same way, we see Jesus in the kindness and love of other people.

Bringing the Gospel Into Your Family

Find the local section of your newspaper today. Pick out people in the news who stand with the first disciples as someone who continues the ministry of Jesus. How do they reveal Jesus' presence by their words and actions? Where do they show joy in what they do? Consider the people in your own family, either immediate or extended. What similar qualities do they have to those in the news?

Discussion Starters

- Even though I can't see him, I know Jesus is with me when ...
- I brought the Good News of Jesus to someone when I ...
- The greatest joy I find in knowing Jesus is ...

Ascension of the Lord

Here are some questions that will test your knowledge of the Ascension story. Finish each sentence by circling the letter next to the choice that you think is correct. You can read the story in your Bible at Acts 1:1-11.

The disciples asked Jesus if he was going to restore the kingdom of Israel. Jesus told them... a. they weren't to know. b. it would happen soon. c. to wait two years.	Jesus told the disciples they would receive power when... a. they traveled to a certain city. b. they ate lunch. c. the Holy Spirit gave it to them.
As the disciples watched... a. Jesus walked away. b. Jesus was taken up into a cloud. c. Jesus got onto a ship and sailed away.	Two men in white told the disciples Jesus would return from heaven... a. in the same way he just left. b. in the Fall. c. when it was dark.

GOOD POPE JOHN

June 3 we will remember the anniversary of the death of St. Pope John XXIII. This pope came from very humble beginnings. He was born Angelo Giuseppe Roncalli in 1881 in Bergamo, Italy, one of thirteen children. His family was so poor that Angelo would walk to school carrying his shoes so the leather wouldn't wear out.

Angelo served in World War I as a chaplain and often worked as a stretcher bearer for the Italian army. He worked in diplomatic missions and tried to create good relationships among Christians, Muslims, and Jews. In Italy he was the National Director of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith, and also taught at a seminary in Rome.

A month before he turned 78, Cardinal Roncalli was elected pope. He took the name John, after his father and the patron saint of Rome's cathedral, St. John Lateran.

As pope, John XXIII added to the number of cardinals in the college of cardinals. He wanted to include men from different countries and cultures. He convened the Second Vatican Council to examine the Church's role in the modern world. With all his duties as pope he still found time to visit hospitals, orphanages, and jails in the city. He often dressed in a simple priest's cassock and walked through the streets of Rome and talked with the people he met.

"Good Pope John," as he was called, died on June 3, 1963. He was beatified by Pope John Paul II in 2000. Pope Francis canonized him as a saint in 2014.

Let us pray that we can follow the example of this holy man. Let us work for peace and understanding among all people. Like "Good Pope John," may we walk among the poor and reach out our hands to those in need.
