Mission Statement of Our Lady of the Rosary

We, the Parish of Our Lady of the Rosary, are a pilgrim church. Under the mantle of the Blessed Virgin Mary, we grow as a people of God following Jesus, celebrating the Eucharist, living apostolic service, continuing faith formation and Marian devotions.

We strive to bring the joy of the gospel and imitate Jesus through compassion, mercy and love, especially for the poor and marginalized. We seek to be faithful stewards providing a heart and home for all.

Feast of the Assumption of Mary
August 15

Three days after her death, Mary's soul was reunited with her body and both were assumed into heaven. In Fausto Tasca's depiction of "The Assumption of Mary," he illustrates Mary standing on a cloud being raised into heaven escorted by angels. The Apostles look up from the earth to witness her body, now reunited with her soul, to rise to heaven.

How do we know that those are the Apostles?

Fausto Tasca was deliberate in each art piece he created for the church. The apostles images that line the interior of the church are painted with a one color for the garment and another for the sash. No two apostles are painted with the same color combinations. This detail in different color combinations aids the viewer as to which Apostle is depicted in the different scenes throughout the church. In this scene Fausto Tasca also included the four Gospels from the painting over the altar.

- Luke
- Mark
- Philip
- Peter
- James
- Paul
- Thomas
- John
- Matthew

Left: Elizabeth, the art restorer is seen cleaning "The Assumption of Mary." The area from her hand to the left has been cleaned. The right has not been cleaned.

"The Assumption of Mary" was one of the canvas paintings that needed to be re-adhered to the ceiling. In the photo below there is a portion of the image that is draped over placement rods. The rods are keeping the rest of the image secure to the ceiling. After the adhesive has been applied to the ceiling, it has to cure before the canvas can be re-adhered.

Twentieth Sunday of Ordinary Time

Gospel Summary

As Jesus announced his mission, he made it clear that there would be no compromising. Called to repentance and challenged to be ready, discipleship would most likely divide households and communities. He knew already that there were divisions among the Jewish leaders. He warned his followers that they, too, might face divisions among their own families. While these repercussions would cause pain, it would also mark the coming of God's Kingdom.

Reflection for Families

Sometimes we have to take an unpopular stand against the ideas of others. When we say "no" to someone who wants to hear "yes," division is created. Parents make decisions that serve a purpose and guide the formation of their children. Friends may say "no" to each other creating division. Of course, healing and reconciliation are vital to the growth of all relationships; and this is basically the same concept as today's Gospel. There will be hard and unpopular acts associated with following Jesus. As a loving parent, God won't compromise the plan. As loving family members, we also understand God's motive!

Bringing the Gospel Into Your Family

Find a family movie that illustrates this Gospel message: Doing something that's right even though it's difficult and sometimes unpopular. One possibility is from Lion King when Simba decides to return home. Share your ideas about what was hard for Simba in his decision. Who helped him? Who suffered because of his decision? Who benefited? What divisions were evident and what reconciliations took place? Think about ways our own lives are like this and share your ideas with one another.

Discussion Questions

- One place where I have seen the results of the fire Jesus lit on earth is . . .
- When someone challenges my religious beliefs, I generally . . .
- One very hard decision I had to make but knew it was the right one happened when . . .

Prayer

O God, who have prepared for those who love you good things which no eye can see, fill our hearts, we pray, with the warmth of your love, so that, loving you in all things and above all things, we may attain your promises, which surpass every human desire. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

Spirit Fire in the Summer

A generation or two ago, these Summer Sundays in Ordinary Time would have been known as Sundays "of Pentecost." That naming convention helped recall that the Spirit's Pentecost fire was carrying us through all the Sundays until the end of the liturgical year. Though we may no longer use that name for these Sundays, the underlying reality is the same. The fire that Jesus speaks about today is the blaze of the Spirit. The fire he spoke about when he told his followers they were light for the world was the flame of the Spirit lighting the lamp of discipleship. It takes courageous disciples to allow the blazing fire of which Jesus speaks into their lives, to allow its light, warmth, and even cleansing to work in them and through them. Though we may not want to think about the heat of the Spirit's fire on a summer Sunday, that Spirit is always with us, burning within.

August 14, 2022

Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us rid ourselves of every burden and sin that clings to us . . .

—Hebrews 12:1

. . . persevere in running the race that lies before us while keeping our eyes fixed on Jesus, the leader and perfecter of faith.

—Hebrews 12:1

God's Word for Children

As we go through life, we should never stop following Jesus!
 Even when it's hard, we need to keep doing the right things.
 Lead the runner to the finish line by making a trail
 that spells PERSEVERE
 (which means "to keep on and not give up").

Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time
 Circle only the eyes with lashes.
 Then read the words in backwards order
 to find why we need to look to Jesus as our guide.

Registration has begun for

Fall 2022 CCD

Classes start on

Sunday, September 11, 2022

We are looking for CCD teachers and roving substitutes.

We also need room helpers (which can be family) to assist with holiday needs and act as substitute teachers.

Prayer for the Assumption of Mary

Father in heaven, all creation rightly gives you praise, for all life and all holiness comes from you. In the plan of your wisdom she who bore the Christ in her womb was raised body and soul in glory to be with him in heaven. May we follow her example in reflecting your holiness and join in her hymn of endless love and praise. We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Amen.

The Angelus Prayer

V. The Angel of the Lord declared to Mary:
 R. And she conceived the power of the Holy Spirit.
 Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee; blessed art thou among women and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death. Amen.

V. Behold the handmaid of the Lord:
 R. Be it done unto me according to Thy word.
 Hail Mary...
 V. And the Word was made Flesh: (Kneel)
 R. And dwelt among us.
 Hail Mary...
 V. Pray for us, O Holy Mother of God,
 R. that we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Let us pray:

Pour forth, we beseech Thee, O Lord, Thy grace into our hearts; that we, to whom the incarnation of Christ, Thy Son, was made known by the message of an angel, may by His Passion and Cross be brought to the glory of His Resurrection, through the same Christ Our Lord.
 Amen.

THE CARDINAL VIRTUES

Do you have the supplies you need to prepare for the beginning of the school year—folders, notebooks, colored pencils? A new school year is a chance for a new start.

It is also important to prepare yourself for the school year. These preparations are not supplies you can buy; they are qualities you have to work at developing. These qualities are called the cardinal virtues. The word “cardinal” comes from the Latin cardo, which means “hinge.” This word is a reminder that your behavior and the qualities that make you a good person hinge on or depend upon practicing these virtues every day. The cardinal virtues are prudence, justice, temperance, and fortitude.

- If you are prudent, you will think about what might be the right thing to do before you do something.
- If you practice justice you will be sure to treat each person fairly and not put yourself above anyone else.
- Temperance helps you keep everything in balance and not overdo any activities, even study, reading, play, and exercise.
- You will need fortitude, which means strength and courage, if you have to face difficult decisions or actions.

Fill in the blanks with the virtue that fits the description.

- After school you are enjoying some screen time. When your parents say it is time for homework you say you want to keep playing your game. To decide the right balance of work and play you will need the virtue of _____
- One of your friends is being bullied on the playground. You decide to stand up for your friend. To be able to face the bully you will need the virtue of _____
- The teacher is presenting a lesson, but your friend wants to talk to you and distracts you. To do the right thing you will need the virtue of _____
- Some of your classmates are being excluded from a game or not chosen to be part of a group because they are different. You encourage your friends to include them. You are practicing the virtue of _____

Can you think of other examples for each virtue? You will need all these supplies to have a good school year. Remember to pray each day to become a virtuous person.
