Sibel's Journey to Sisterhood

Above: Mother Helen placing the white veil on me during the clothing ceremony.

Ss. Michael, Gabriel, Raphael, Archangels come to our aid!

Below: Father Joe baptized me on April 20th, 2019. He was able to make it out from San Diego for the ceremony.

Holding Relic of the True Cross and my Baptismal Candle which Fr. Joe brought from San Diego. I used this candle as I processed in before the ceremony.

By the grace of God, I separated from the Navy last September and have been in religious life as a Catholic Nun for the last 9 months and officially became a Novice on September 14th, 2022, the Feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross.

As I now wear the Carmelite habit and the white veil, I also take a new name (we don't legally change our name but this is essentially a new identity with Christ). My new name is Sister Therese Michael of the Cross (after St. Therese of Lisieux, the Carmelite saint who entered at 15 and died at 24, and St.

Michael the Archangel who saved me in Afghanistan and brought me to the Catholic church where I was Baptized in 2019).

The end part of the name is a big deal in Carmel, it is essentially the mystery of my vocation. As I have departed from the military, leaving behind physical battle, I now have entered the spiritual battle which is very difficult, although invisible to the eye. There is so much evil in the world as we all are aware, and I have left the world and given up any kind of actual weapon. Instead my new weapon is the Cross, the greatest weapon to ever exist. It is a weapon of LOVE. For God so loved the world that He gave His only Son, so that whoever may believe in Him may not perish, but have eternal life (John 3:16)

My new life is a life of prayer, sacrifice, and solely devoted to loving Jesus Christ in solitude, silence, and small community.

If anyone would like to write me, please see the address below. I can receive letters anytime, just know that I am only allowed to respond at certain times (like Christmas, Easter, big feasts) unless I ask permission.

Also, please keep us in mind for donations! We depend solely on God's providence and alms from generous donors.

Peace in Christ,

Gospel Summary

As was often Jesus' message, today's Gospel reverses the rich and poor of this world and the next. Lazarus, a poor beggar who was most likely crippled and had open sores that dogs licked, sat every day beneath the window of a rich man. The rich man dined lavishly everyday and completely ignored Lazarus. Eventually, they both died and the angels carried Lazarus to heaven where he was held by Abraham. The rich man went to hell where he was parched and tormented. Looking up, the rich man saw Lazarus comforted by Abraham and still with arrogant behavior, asked Abraham to send Lazarus down to dip water onto his tongue. Abraham explained that there could be no crossing from one place to the next and that the rich man was stuck with the consequences of his earthly behavior. The man knew it futile then to argue for himself but begged Abraham to send someone to his brothers to warn them that they needed to change, or they would end up as he had. Abraham reminded the man that his brothers had already been told all that, and it was now up to them whether or not they believed it. Even the raising of a dead person would not convince them if their hearts were closed.

Reflection for Families

Most often we think of ourselves as rich people sharing our resources with those in need, and indeed, that is what we, as Christians, are called to do. But have we ever been the one being served? Perhaps we have not found it necessary to receive material goods from others, but what have others given us out of generosity in the form of time, energy, or actions. Maybe someone sat with us when one of our children was sick, or helped us with some physical chore when our burden was too heavy to carry alone. It might even be a coach or teacher who has helped our children in a generous way. How can the actions of these people help us better live this Gospel message today? What can we give of ourselves?

Bringing the Gospel Into Your Family

Gather items from your home that are in good condition and not necessarily the things you plan to get rid of anyway—maybe a new item of clothing, a new book, or toy that you're not quite finished with. Place them all in one area of your home, possibly a prayer area. Pray over the items and for the people who will be receiving them and then take them to a shelter for families that are suffering hardship. Continue to pray for the people who will receive and use the items you offer.

Discussion Questions

- The way I feel about having so much more than someone else is . . .
- One way I believe we can fill in the distance between the world of "haves" and "have nots" is . . .
- One of the greatest incidents of inequality that I see is . . .

Prayer

O God, who manifest your almighty power above all by pardoning and showing mercy, bestow, we pray, your grace abundantly upon us and make those hastening to attain your promises heirs to the treasures of heaven. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

Care for each other

Don't delude yourselves, Jesus says through the parable of the rich man and Lazarus. We really are supposed to care for others. It is not enough to go to Mass and occasionally serve at a parish or outreach function. We cannot remain complacent and consider ourselves followers of Jesus. No matter how much or how little material wealth we have, we always have something to give—our time and attention, care, and, when possible, our money. The way we treat and care for others, especially the poor and vulnerable, is the manner in which we show our love of God. As disciples, we must "pursue righteousness, devotion, faith, love, patience, and gentleness." Jesus calls us to see and respond to the least among us, because, as God's children, we are all part of one another. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co..

God's Word for Children

Jesus told a story about a poor man with sores all over his body. He often would lie at the door of a rich man's estate, but the rich man never helped ease his suffering. When the poor man died, the angels carried him to heaven, where he found comfort and peace. To discover the man's name, circle the capital letter on each angel's robe.

GUARDIAN ANGELS

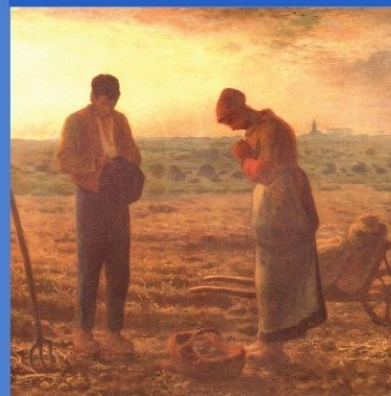

“See that you do not despise one of these little ones, for I say to you that their angels in heaven always look upon the face of my heavenly Father.”
(Matthew 18:10)

On October 2 we celebrate the memorial of the Guardian Angels. An angel is a messenger from God. This passage from the Gospel of Matthew reminds us that each of us has an angel who is sent from God to protect and guide us. St. Paul, in his letter to the Hebrews, writes that these angels are spirits who serve the special task of helping us on the path toward God (see Hebrews 1:14).

God knows that we always try to do the right thing. Sometimes that is hard and we need some help. In times when we are afraid or sad or worried, it is good to know that we have a guardian angel who reminds us of God’s presence.

Try to form the habit of saying this prayer each night or morning. The first one is the traditional form of the prayer. The second is like it in simpler words. Cut out each angel and place both of them at the side of your bed.

The Angelus Prayer

V. The Angel of the Lord declared to Mary:
R. And she conceived the power of the Holy Spirit.
Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee; blessed art thou among women and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death. Amen.
V. Behold the handmaid of the Lord:
R. Be it done unto me according to Thy word.
Hail Mary...
V. And the Word was made Flesh: (Kneel)
R. And dwelt among us.
Hail Mary...
V. Pray for us, O Holy Mother of God,
R. that we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Let us pray:

Pour forth, we beseech Thee, O Lord, Thy grace into our hearts; that we, to whom the incarnation of Christ, Thy Son, was made known by the message of an angel, may by His Passion and Cross be brought to the glory of His Resurrection, through the same Christ Our Lord.
Amen.
