We strive to bring the joy of the gospel and imitate Jesus through compassion, mercy and love, especially for the poor and marginalized. We seek to be faithful stewards providing a heart and home for all.

We Welcome All Visitors to Our Celebration

A MESSAGE FROM OUR PRIESTS

Father Joseph, Father Louis and Father Albino

The Church celebrates this Sunday as Solemnity of the Lord's Epiphany. The word "Epiphany" means the appearance/manifestation.

The "Epiphany" of the Lord, is his manifestation to the world beginning from the shepherds then to the three magi who traveled from a far symbolizing the different nations of the earth. He allows himself to be seen by the people, to be touched by those who want to embrace him. This is the greatest manifestation of God's love and mercy to humanity, that because of His Love to the world he brings himself more closer and taking human nature and dwell among with his people. And He still desires continuously to bring the people to dwell with Him into his Divine Kingdom. If we want to be with the Lord, so let us travel on to the road that leads us to Him. God bless us.

ASK A CATHOLIC

*Matthew 6:7 states, "When ye pray, use not vain repetitions."
So why do you recite the Lord's Prayer and other written prayers?*

The Our Father was given to us by Jesus as the model of prayer (Matt. 6:9-15; Luke 2:1-4), so it would be quite odd for Christians not to use it as their most common prayer.

Jesus himself repeated prayers: [Jesus] advanced a little and fell prostrate in prayer, saying, "My Father, if it is possible, let this cup pass from me; yet, not as I will, but as you will."

Withdrawing a second time, he prayed again, "My Father, if it is not possible that this cup pass without my drinking it, your will be done!" He left them and withdrew again and prayed a third time, saying the same thing again. (Matt. 26:39, 42, 44)

To claim that simply repeating the same prayer is a violation of Jesus' teaching would be to claim Jesus violated his own teaching. Are the angels in heaven violating Jesus' teaching by praying the same prayer forever?

The four living creatures, each of them with six wings, were covered with eyes inside and out.

Day and night they do not stop exclaiming:

"Holy, holy, holy is the Lord God almighty, who was, and who is, and who is to come" (Rev. 4:8).

Jesus' point in Matthew 6:5-8 is about prayer without heart, prayer without soul, prayer without inner meaning. Jesus was condemning a transactional understanding of prayer. Commonly repeated prayers like the Our Father are about meditation and worship of God, not finding the right formula to get what we want.

"Much more is accomplished by a single word of the Our Father said, now and then, from our heart, than by the whole prayer repeated many times in haste and without attention." — St. Teresa of Avila

A message to Our Lady of the Rosary via Maria Sardina:

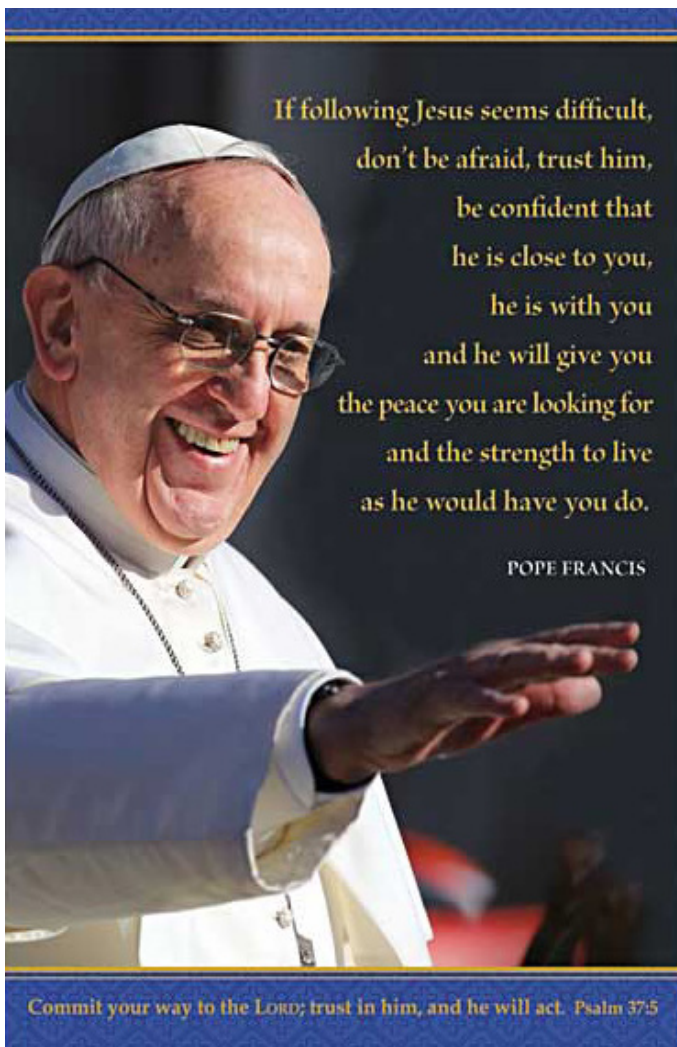

Hey Maria, I just wanted to finally say Thank You again for all the Gift Cards you provided. We were able to purchase many of things you see in the attached pictures. New carpet, new desks, chairs and computers. Our emergency shelter for Women and Children(NVH) needed a room so the ladies could look for jobs, connect with community services and wait for their Client Advocate appt. This room is a Game Changer!!

We couldn't have done this without you. Thanks Donna for the introduction. You guys made a difference at the Mission. Lord bless you and Merry CHRISTmas...

*"The one who shuts his ears to the cry of the poor will himself

be answered."*
- Proverbs 21:13

If following Jesus seems difficult,
don't be afraid, trust him,
be confident that he is close to you,
he is with you
and he will give you the peace you are looking for and the strength to live as he would have you do.
