Our Lady of the Rosary Mission Statement

We, the Parish of Our Lady of the Rosary, are a pilgrim church. Under the mantle of the Blessed Virgin Mary, we grow as a people of God following Jesus, celebrating the Eucharist, living apostolic service, continuing faith formation and Marian devotions.

We strive to bring the joy of the gospel and imitate Jesus through compassion, mercy and love, especially for the poor and marginalized. We seek to be faithful stewards providing a heart and home for all.

We Welcome All Visitors to Our Celebration

While Holy Communion may only be received by prepared Catholics, our non-Catholic guests are welcome to receive a blessing from the priest or deacon during Communion. Join the Communion line with your arms crossed over your chest to receive your blessing.

A MESSAGE FROM OUR PRIESTS

Father Joseph, Father Louis and Father Albino

The gospel this Sunday reveals that there is really called a place of torment or a state of life which is eternally tormented. It is according to the parable we have heard and that came out from the mouth of the Lord Jesus the Christ who is the way, the truth and the life. We believe and are convince that when the Lord Jesus speaks/ reveals it is true and it will really happen. His parable helps us to prepare what we must do, and what we must not to do from this life in order to escape that place of torment and be enjoyed a state of life into the bosom of God in his Kingdom. The 2nd Reading is a good starting steps to live this life in order to be admitted into the company of the blessed in God's eternal dwelling in Heaven.

– Amen

ASK A CATHOLIC

WHAT IS THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN TALKING TO A SAINT AND TALKING TO A GHOST?
 IN BOTH CASES THE SAINT AND GHOST HAVE PASSED ON; THEREFORE, THEY BOTH ARE A SPIRIT. SO WHAT DIFFERENCE DOES IT MAKE IF ONE SPIRIT IS IN HEAVEN AND THE OTHER IS IN MY HOUSE?

ANSWER: By forbidding occult contact with the supernatural realm, what the Church is forbidding are the methods and techniques generally used to “summon up” departed human beings or other spirits (e.g., ouija boards, crystal balls, séances, mediums, etc.). It is not forbidding “conversation,” so to speak, between those in this life and those in the next; it is only forbidding attempts to manipulate the supernatural realm to obtain forbidden power or knowledge (CCC 2116).

Take, for example, Saul's attempt to speak with the dead prophet, Samuel, through the medium of Endor (1 Sam. 28:7-20). It was not Saul's desire to speak with Samuel that was his sin but the forbidden means by which he accomplished it. It would have been perfectly fine for Saul to have prayed to Samuel, asking Samuel for his intercession, but instead Saul had a medium “conjure” Samuel. The text gives us no reason to think that the person with whom Saul spoke was not Samuel—demonstrating that God may allow such contact to occasionally “work” to bring good out of evil (in this case, allowing Samuel to issue the warning to Saul that he would soon die)—but that does not make the forbidden methods lawful.

Prayer to saints, on the other hand, is entirely different. There is no attempt to conjure up spirits, no attempt to seek forbidden knowledge. All that is done is that the petitioner honors God's friend and asks the saint for prayer.
