IN ORDINARY TIME

[Jesus] said to the crowd, "Take care to guard against all greed, for though one may be rich, one's life does not consist of possessions." - Lk 12:15

Mission Statement of Our Lady of the Rosary

We, the Parish of Our Lady of the Rosary, are a pilgrim church. Under the mantle of the Blessed Virgin Mary, we grow as a people of God following Jesus, celebrating the Eucharist, living apostolic service, continuing faith formation and Marian devotions. We strive to bring the joy of the gospel and imitate Jesus through compassion, mercy and love, especially for the poor and marginalized. We seek to be faithful stewards providing a heart and home for all.

O Most Holy Virgin Mary, Queen of the most holy Rosary, inspire in us a fervent love of the Rosary. By meditating on the mysteries of the life of our redeemer, may we obtain the healing graces and virtues that we ask, through the merits of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Amen.

JESUS

— THE TRANSFIGURATION —

The eyes of the apostles were transformed as they saw the Glory of God. May the eyes of all people be transformed to see the Glory of God in each and every human life.

Gospel Summary

From the crowd, a man called out to Jesus asking for help in a family matter. The man wanted his share of the family inheritance from his brother. Jesus first made it clear that he was not the man's arbitrator and refused to enter the quarrel. But Jesus did use the opportunity to teach the crowd that placing too much emphasis on the acquisition of material wealth would lead to greed and greed would lead to conflicts in families. Jesus continued by making the point that true security did not exist in a surplus of goods when he relayed a parable about a man who had a bumper crop. So huge was the harvest's yield that the man decided to tear down his storage buildings and build new ones to hold all his grain. Once everything was stored, the man would have no worries and could spend his life without care. But God demanded the man's life that night and we are left to wonder what good did all the abundance do the man?

Reflection for Families

How many families do we know about, sadly maybe our own, who have been injured and separated by financial issues. One person expects a portion of an inheritance but doesn't receive it. Maybe some unexpected person benefits from a family member's generosity and leaves a brother, sister, or child feeling neglected or overlooked. As parents we want to make the lives of our children comfortable and so we go about accumulating wealth and materials possessions, but the Gospel today cautions us to beware of placing importance in the wrong places. We have no idea what will happen to our accumulations, but we do know God's promise that if we are prepared at the moment our lives are recalled, we will have wealth beyond measure in heaven.

Bringing the Gospel into your Family

Make a list of all the "extra" things your family has. Most likely the list will be extensive. What things on this list bring your family security? (Remember there's nothing wrong with taking care of our families and building security!) Now imagine that a great disaster has been predicted for tomorrow and there's a good chance you won't be here the next day. Which of these things are now important? Is there anything you would alter on the list knowing that you only have a couple days left on this earth? When you have finished, ask each person what changes he/she might make in his/her life because of this exercise and then help or support one another in those changes.

- I am especially greedy when it comes to . . .
- The richest person I know in the sight of God is . . . because . . .

The Angelus Prayer

V. The Angel of the Lord declared to Mary:

R. And she conceived the power of the Holy Spirit.

Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee; blessed art thou among women and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death. Amen.

V. Behold the handmaid of the Lord:

R. Be it done unto me according to Thy word.

Hail Mary...

V. And the Word was made Flesh: (Kneel)

R. And dwelt among us.

Hail Mary...

V. Pray for us, O Holy Mother of God,

R. that we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Let us pray:

Pour forth, we beseech Thee, O Lord, Thy grace into our hearts; that we, to whom the incarnation of Christ, Thy Son, was made known by the message of an angel, may by His Passion and Cross be brought to the glory of His Resurrection, through the same Christ Our Lord. Amen.

TEACH US TO PRAY

We learned about prayer of thanksgiving and prayer of petition. This week we will discuss three more: intercession, praise, and blessing and adoration.

Intercession is another word for petition, or asking, but with one difference. Prayer of petition asks for things we need. Prayer of intercession asks that the needs of another be met. We hear prayers of intercession during Mass. They might include prayers for leaders of Church and state, for people who are hungry, for people living with the threat of war or violence, for people who are sick or dying. When you tell someone you will pray for them, that is a great gift and a responsibility. Who would you include in your prayers of intercession?

Prayers of praise give us the chance to look toward God. In these prayers we recognize how great God is and we say so. A prayer called the Divine Praises is usually pray after Benediction. It includes praises like "Blessed be God," "Blessed be his holy name," and "Blessed be the Holy Spirit." What words would you use to praise God?

The final form of prayer is adoration. The "Glory Be" prayer is a good example of a prayer of adoration.

Fill in the final three forms of prayer in the sections marked with I, P, and A in the circle. Try to use all of these prayers during the week. You can decide to use a different type each day, or you could make a spinner and use it to choose your prayer for the day. Each one of these prayers is a good way to keep connected to God.
