Prayer to Madonna del Paradiso

O Mary, beautiful Mother of the Lord and my Mother, turn your compassionate gaze to me too with maternal tenderness. If you open your eyes upon me, as from prodigious sources the most abundant graces of the Redemption will descend into my soul. Light the way to my exile, O Star of the Sea. Lead my spiritual battles to victory, O most powerful Virgin. Show me your Jesus in the Eucharistic Scripture, O Mother of beautiful love. Transfigure my life, Immaculate Conception, into your supernatural beauty. Strengthen my faith so that everywhere you teach it and defend it with example and word, O Queen of the Apostles. Give me the generosity to carry my cross with joy to the top of Calvary, O Mother of the Crucified. You who hear everyone, and intercede eternal health even to children who do not pray to you, save me too, oh merciful Mother, who invoke you with the most filial and trusting love. The last name that I will pronounce while dying, be your name, O Mary, and the first face that I will meet at the door of heaven, be yours, oh sweet Queen of Heaven.

The Actual shrine of the Madonna Paradiso was designed by Bishop De La Torre and was inaugurated on November 8, 1808. The Shrine was constructed upon a small church dedicated in the 1500's to Our Lady of the Rosary. The painted image of the Madonna is a life size bust whose artisan was Sabastian Conca. The painting is encased in a marble-like frame balanced with 2 angels on each side. (pictured above)

In Mazara, a liturgy and mass is celebrated on November 4 of each year. On the second Sunday of each July there is a procession followed by thousands of people as the Madonna's image is taken from church to church.

The Miraculous Madonna del Paradiso

There has been a following for the Madonna del Paradiso in Mazara since the beginning of the 18th century. The Ligurian priests were asked to follow a spiritual study that was two-months long and was led by Monsignor Orazio De La Torre. De La Torre, originally from Palermo, was assigned to the Diocese of Mazara del Vallo for 19 years.

In the second half of the spiritual exercise, the participants were praying within the chapel of the holy temple where the painted image of the Madonna del Paradiso was kept. At approximately 9 pm on November 3, 1797, the eyes on the painting, which were painted skyward, miraculously moved and focused on the participants in the chapel. The eye movements repeated several times during the evening, astonishing the people who were present.

Later, the painting of the Madonna was moved to the Cathedral in Mazara. This move was accompanied by thousands of Mazaresi processing and praying. During the vigil that followed and throughout the next day, the people were astonished—the eyes of the painted image continued to move! This miraculous experience was repeated on the paintings at the monasteries of St. Catherine, St. Veneranda and St. Michael's.

From December 10, 1797, through the month of June 1798, the Bishop ordered an investigation to prove the validity of the unimaginable reports. When the Bishop himself witnessed the miracle, he applied to the Vatican for the coronation of the Madonna. On April 10, 1803, the image was decreed and coronated by the Vatican.

The eye movements reoccurred on October 20, 1807, as testified by Don Giuseppe Marie Tomasi of the royal family of Lampedusa. More reports of the miracle are recorded for the years 1810, 1811, 1866, and at various other times. The last recorded movement was observed in the Cathedral in 1981.

The celebration in San Diego

Locally, we tailor this tradition by having our beautiful image of the Madonna taken to individual homes for 9 days in the first half of November. Families and friends gather and pray the rosary each day at a different home. Members of the society volunteer to host the event which is often celebrated by a meal or dessert at the end of the evening. This is a wonderful opportunity to share our tradition and exchange stories about our faith. It is also customary to pin monetary donations on the blue ribbon attached to the image during the visitations and festa celebration.

Now, the beautiful the image in the church is encased in a custom made Vara that was designed by Leonardo Ingrande. The original founder of The Society del Paradiso was Jerry Ingrande. He asked the priest to allow the image that was brought to America in the early 1900's to be displayed in the church. Sara Asaro Terramagra donated the portrait to the church and it has been safely preserved by relatives in the Zottolo Frontiero family. It is important to note that it was a collaborative effort among many people especially with the assistance of a devoted parish member known as La Contessa (Josie Sciuto) who played a key role in convincing Monsignor Trevasani to agree to place the image in the church. We will always be grateful for those before us who made it possible to carry on the meaningful devotional tradition as it is done in Mazara. We continue to embrace it today with the significant contributions and unending support of our Society members.

Gospel Summary

It is clear from this passage in Luke's Gospel that when the world ends, some terrifying events will occur. The clear message, however, is that we should not face these events with apprehension, but rather with trust — trust that God wants us to have everlasting life with him. Instead of being afraid, we are called to find strength and courage in God's love and persevere in our faith.

Reflection for Families

Today's Gospel makes it clear that we should persevere in our faith and be faithful disciples. We are most responsible for evangelizing our own children. There is an expression, "Faith is caught, not taught." How do our children see us live out our faith? How do we witness the greatness of God's love and our personal response to that love? Share with your child(ren) what it means for you to walk with Jesus.

Bringing the Gospel Into Your Family

Find a copy of Thunder Cake by Patricia Polacco at the library or Owl Babies by Martin Waddell. Read the book as a family and talk about who was there when someone was afraid. Ask one another who helps us when we're afraid? The answers may be predictable or you might be surprised. In either case, it's good to remind one another that Jesus is always with us . . . especially when we are afraid.

Discussion Questions
