

Lent 2026

Pray - Fast - Learn - Give

"Return to me with your whole heart" (Joel 2:12-18)

Join St. Agnes Parish

in preparing for Christ's Resurrection with the following activities each week during Lent:

✝ February 18

Ash Wednesday

Pick up your CRS Rice Bowl Materials. Look through the Lenten reading materials found on the back shelves of church. Feel free to take any materials which would be helpful to you and your family.

✝ February 21-22

First Sunday of Lent

Alms will be accepted in the donation box which will be located in the lobby.

Donate the change in your pocket to help those less fortunate in our parish and in the world.

✝ February 22-24

Lenten Mission:

Living a Christ-Centered Life—6:30-8 p.m.

Join us for three nights of engaging talks and devotions. Fr. Brad Krawczyk, from St. Francis de Sales Seminary, will present two nights of talks that will help us to re-center our life with Christ. Father Sergio will lead our third night with our traditional Lenten devotions of Stations of the Cross and Eucharistic Adoration. Opportunity for confession will be available during the mission. Each night opens and closes with song and prayer with fellowship afterwards.

✝ February 28-March 1

Second Sunday of Lent

Bring your donations of non-perishable food items and cleaning supplies for our Food Pantry:

Pasta sauce, pancake mix/syrup, canned fruit, crackers, jelly, baked beans, ketchup, meals in a can (Chef Boy-R-Dee/beef stew) or box (Hamburger Helper or Rice a Roni). We can always use sugar, flour, oil.

Bring your donations of cleaning supplies, laundry and dish detergent, paper towels, cleanser and any other cleaners.

(Please put all donations in Food Pantry Box in the Church Lobby.)
