Mission Appeal Weekend: July 26-27

Fr. Johnson Nelliserry will be joining Masses next weekend to preach about his mission on behalf of the Schoenstatt Fathers in India.

The Schoenstatt Fathers are part of the International Schoenstatt Movement. There are about three hundred priests assigned to different parts of the world, including the US; in fact, some of them are serving in Austin.

The Schoenstatt Fathers in India aim to develop centers of spiritual renewal, schools, and colleges for deserted and neglected children, predominantly girls, as well as centers for qualified Catholic character formation. They work in parishes, promote faith formation among youth and families, and engage in reaching out to the poor and needy, participating in the evangelization process of the Church in India.

For their social projects and the formation of seminarians, the Schoenstatt Fathers of India appeal to your solidarity and ask for your generous support. We will have a special collection for this mission appeal during Mass next weekend.

For more information about the mission of the Fathers, please visit <http://www.schoenstatt-fathers.in>.

Thanks to your support over the years we have:

- Raised over $279,000
- We have advanced procedures in safer bone marrow transplants by focusing on treating Graft vs. Host which is something that Sam suffered from.
- We work very closely with Dr. Margolis at the Medical College of Wisconsin and know where all the funds go
- Check out our website: www.sammemorialfund.com for updates. Or on Facebook:

FACTS ON SAM

- ❖ Kindergarten student at St. Agnes from 1999-2000
- ❖ Was diagnosed with AML Leukemia at the age of 4.
- ❖ Underwent a bone marrow transplant from an unrelated donor in January of 2000.
- ❖ Passed away at the age of 6 in April 2000.
- ❖ Sam is an inspiration to many and is missed by his family, friends and classmates.
