

He said to them, “Wherever you enter a
house, stay there until you leave from there.
Whatever place does
not welcome you or
listen to you, leave
there and shake the dust off your feet in testimony against them.” So they went off and preached
repentance.

Deanery News: Several parishioners from St. Mary in Paxton traveled to St. Mary Church in Beaverville on Thursday, June 7, for the annual Ford-Iroquois Deanery Spring Institute. Attending from Paxton were Kathy Brooks, Judy Jepsen-Popel, Jean Watson, Treva Hopper, Mary Woolridge, and Barbara Stockman. Marlene Mertes from St. Joseph in Loda met us there. A short business meeting was held and voting for officers was completed. Mass was celebrated by Fr. Michael Powell who traveled from St. Edmunds, Watseka, then we enjoyed a delicious luncheon. The program was about the food pantry in Martinton which serves people in Iroquois County. Canned goods were donated by the CCW members who attended. Our group was proud to win the traveling trophy for having the most members there after a 3 way tie. The next Spring Institute will be hosted by St. Mary CCW in Paxton.
