We have parish members that gift grain to St. John the Baptist Catholic Church, Bancroft and Sacred Heart Catholic Church, Ledyard. We appreciate your help in making this an easy way for our contributors to transfer ownership of their grain to the church. Please use the attached Grain Ownership Transfer form.

You are authorized to sell any grain transferred to St. John the Baptist Catholic Church and Sacred Heart Catholic Church at the time of the transfer.

Once the transfer is complete and the grain is sold, please e-mail the completed & signed Grain Ownership Transfer Form and settlement sheet to me at the e-mail address below. The check for the proceeds of the grain sale can be mailed to us at the address below. Our parish member (producer) may drop all of the above items off at my office if they prefer.

Please note – per IRS regulations - contracted grain sales are not considered a charitable grain donation as the grain has been pre-sold and the ownership of the grain has not been transferred to the parish.

Feel free to contact me if you have any questions.
