ST. ANTHONY SCHOOL NEWS

God Rules! This third month of a New Year, we will focus on the Eighth Commandment: "You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor."

This commandment calls us to always be honest and not gossip about others and to speak kindly to others. Jesus shows how we should live out this commandment: Jesus is God, and God is the source of all truth. God never lies (Hebrews 6:18). Jesus died for our sins, some of which may include dishonesty and gossiping, so that we may have eternal life.

Our challenge this week will be: To NOT gossip, and if we hear another gossiping, to explain to them why/how it hurts others and the person gossiping.

THE SCHOOL IS HOPING TO PURCHASE SOME KEYBOARDS FOR OUR MUSIC PROGRAM. If you are interested in donating any money toward this project or if you have a keyboard that is in good working order that you are willing to donate, please contact the school office at 859-431-5987.

PARTICIPATION IN CHRIST’S REDEMPTIVE MISSION

As we move through the Season of Lent, you may be wondering what the point is. You’ve tried limiting your food intake in some way, or you’ve taken a few cold showers, or you’ve gone to daily Mass a few more times than usual. Maybe you’re involved in a daily Lenten reflection or kicked up your prayer life in some way. Still, you may feel that nothing in your relationship with God and man has really improved significantly. Perhaps you’re a little bit closer to the Lord, spiritually speaking, but Easter is around the corner and you’re likely to fall right back into your normal, not-so-spiritual habits. What is the point? When Jesus went into the desert to fast for 40 days in preparation for His public ministry, He wasn’t just mortifying His senses to ensure His human soul was rightly aligned with His divine Spirit. He wasn’t just doing a “negative.” Nor was He performing so many “positive” works of mercy, like feeding the hungry and counseling the doubtful (although He was surely praying for the living and the dead). His preparation, like the whole of His life, was a “positive” redemptive act of suffering love. For sure, the culmination point of His redemption occurred on Good Friday, but Jesus’ entire mission, from birth to death to glory, was about vicarious suffering, suffering for souls. As Catholics, not only do we know the above, we also know that we can participate in Christ’s redemptive activity through grace. We believe in co-redemption, with and under Christ. We take seriously St. Peter’s counsel: “Come to him, to that living stone, rejected by men but in God’s sight chosen and precious; and like living stones be yourselves built into a spiritual house, to be a holy priesthood, to offer spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ” (1 Peter 2:4-5), as a testimony of the ordinary priesthood we all share by Baptism. This is not the ministerial priesthood of offering the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass: it is the common priesthood of offering ourselves, our own “spiritual sacrifices” united to Christ’s for the redemption of our loved ones. This is why St. Paul could say that “I rejoice in my sufferings for your sake, and in my flesh I complete what is lacking in Christ’s afflictions for the sake of His body, that is, the Church.” (Colossians 1:24) Jesus’ redemption is open to (“lacking in”) our participation in vicarious, suffering love. What is the point? The point is that our Lenten sacrifices, if offered as so many prayers for those we love, has redemptive value no matter what the end of Lent means for us personally. It’s not about us in the final analysis. It’s about saving souls, now, in this season, and until the end of time, which paradoxically fulfills us like never before. “The point is this: whoever sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and whoever sows bountifully will also reap bountifully.” (2 Corinthians 9:6)

2024 DIOCESAN PARISH ANNUAL APPEAL"Zeal for your house will consume me." (John 2:17)*

In preparation for Commitment Weekend, please take the time to read the DPAA newsletter that is enclosed in today's bulletin. As you learn more about DPAA ministries, reflect upon all the good that has been accomplished throughout the history of the Appeal because of the sacrifices and generosity of our Diocesan family. A sacrificial gift to the Appeal assures the ministries and services that no Parish could provide on its own. Some of these ministries benefit you and your fellow Parishioners and some serve those you may never meet. A pledge to the Appeal makes you an ambassador for Christ in love, sacrifice, and service. On March 16 and 17, during Mass, we will complete our DPAA pledge forms together. Everything we do as members of the faith community reminds us that we know when we serve others, we serve the Lord, performing good works in His name. When asked to help advance God's Kingdom on earth by sharing your material blessings through the 2024 DPAA, please be as generous as you can.

LEARNING TO TRUST IN GOD, WHILE LIVING A LIFE OF SUFFERING

Carson and his younger brother suffer from a rare extremely painful skin disease requiring extensive care every day. At the beginning of COVID, 12-year-old Carson started praying the Divine Mercy Chaplet on FB for the end of the pandemic and people's personal intentions. This humble gesture of faith went viral when EWTN aired an interview with Carson that received one million views worldwide. The daily family ministry continues to be aired online. Do not miss this beautiful witness from a young man who recognizes he does not have to suffer in vain, and instead offers up his suffering for others. A lesson for us all! Palm Sunday, March 24th, 7:00 p.m., St. Catherine Church, Ft. Thomas, KY. Family appropriate. Doors open at 6:30 p.m. No tickets required. Love offering taken.
