A classical painting of the Nativity scene. Mary is on the left, leaning over the infant Jesus who lies on a bed of straw. Joseph stands behind the infant, looking up in awe. Two angels are present: one kneels in the foreground with hands clasped in prayer, and another stands behind her. The scene is set in a rustic stable with wooden beams and straw. The lighting is soft and focused on the infant Jesus.

ST. ANTHONY SCHOOL NEWS*FROM THE DESK OF MRS. SCHWEITZER:

For the 2025-2026 school year, our theme will be "Come Follow Me." In the Gospel of John 10:27-29, Jesus says, "My sheep hear my voice; I know them, and they follow me. I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish. No one can take them out of my hand. My Father, who has given them to me, is greater than all, and no one can take them out of the Father's hand."

What do these words mean to us as disciples of Jesus? During this Jubilee Year in our Church, we are called to be "Pilgrims of Hope." We are supposed to contribute to our Church's mission of unity and charity. John 10:27-29 shows that Jesus knows us inside and out; He knows everything about us, and He loves us deeply. Jesus is our "Good Shepherd," and we are "His flock" who are called to listen to His will for us and follow Him. In order to do this, we must try to learn and understand Scripture and the traditions of the Catholic Church.

This school year, we will spend time focusing on the Sunday Gospel readings and what they tell us about how we, as Pilgrims of Hope, are to follow Jesus, so that when our Good Shepherd says to us, "COME FOLLOW ME," we listen, follow, and become a more unified Church.

Gospel Reading: Matthew 3:1-12

Word of the Week: acknowledged

Prayer for the Week:

Jesus, God's Beloved Son (Colossians 1:13), help us to be living examples of Your love for the world.

Words of the month from the Gospel readings: acknowledged, Messiah, Emmanuel

MISSION STATEMENT

St. Anthony Catholic School accepts the responsibility, along with the parents, to educate students spiritually, morally, and academically in a safe and caring Christian atmosphere. Each individual is assured academic achievement and develops social and emotional growth while embracing the Gospel message of Jesus Christ.

VISION STATEMENT

St. Anthony Catholic School's vision is to work together as a team composed of students, parents, teachers, and staff in a positive manner to build strong, spiritual children who give witness to their faith.

ST. JOHN THE EVANGELIST

Saint of the Day: December 27

Patron Saint of Turkey

It is God who calls; human beings answer. The vocation of John and his brother James is stated very simply in the Gospels, along with that of Peter and his brother Andrew: Jesus called them; they followed. The absoluteness of their response is indicated by the account. James and John "were in a boat, with their father Zebedee, mending their nets. He called them, and immediately they left their boat and their father and followed him" (Matthew 4:21b-22).

For the three former fishermen – Peter, James and John – that faith was to be rewarded by a special friendship with Jesus. They alone were privileged to be present at the Transfiguration, the raising of the daughter of Jairus and the agony in Gethsemane. But John's friendship was even more special. Tradition assigns to him the Fourth Gospel, although most modern Scripture scholars think it unlikely that the apostle and the evangelist are the same person.

John's own Gospel refers to him as "the disciple whom Jesus loved" (see John 13:23; 19:26; 20:2), the one who reclined next to Jesus at the Last Supper, and the one to whom Jesus gave the exquisite honor of caring for his mother, as John stood beneath the cross. "Woman, behold your son.... Behold, your mother" (John 19:26b, 27b).
