ST. ANTHONY SCHOOL NEWS

FROM THE DESK OF MRS. SCHWEITZER:

For the 2025-2026 school year, our theme will be "Come Follow Me." In the Gospel of John 10:27-29, Jesus says, "My sheep hear my voice; I know them, and they follow me. I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish. No one can take them out of my hand. My Father, who has given them to me, is greater than all, and no one can take them out of the Father's hand."

What do these words mean to us as disciples of Jesus? During this Jubilee Year in our Church, we are called to be "Pilgrims of Hope." We are supposed to contribute to our Church's mission of unity and charity. John 10:27-29 shows that Jesus knows us inside and out; He knows everything about us, and He loves us deeply. Jesus is our "Good Shepherd," and we are "His flock" who are called to listen to His will for us and follow Him. In order to do this, we must try to learn and understand Scripture and the traditions of the Catholic Church.

This school year, we will spend time focusing on the Sunday Gospel readings and what they tell us about how we, as Pilgrims of Hope, are to follow Jesus, so that when our Good Shepherd says to us, "COME FOLLOW ME," we listen, follow, and become a more unified Church.

Gospel Reading: Matthew 3:1-12

Word of the Week: acknowledged

Prayer for the Week:

Jesus, God's Beloved Son (Colossians 1:13), help us to be living examples of Your love for the world.

Words of the month from the Gospel readings:

acknowledged, Messiah, Emmanuel

ST. BASIL THE GREAT

Saint of the Day: January 2

Patron Saint of Russia

Saint Basil the Great was on his way to becoming a famous teacher when he decided to begin a religious life of gospel poverty. After studying various modes of religious life, he founded what was probably the first monastery in Asia Minor. He is to monks of the East what Saint Benedict is to the West, and Basil's principles influence Eastern monasticism today.

He was ordained a priest, assisted the archbishop of Caesarea—now southeastern Turkey—and ultimately became archbishop himself, in spite of opposition from some of the bishops under him, probably because they foresaw coming reforms.

Arianism, one of the most damaging heresies in the history of the Church which denied the divinity of Christ, was at its height. Emperor Valens persecuted orthodox believers, and put great pressure on Basil to remain silent and admit the heretics to Communion. Basil remained firm, and Valens backed down. But trouble remained. When the great Saint Athanasius died, the mantle of defender of the faith against Arianism fell upon Basil. He strove mightily to unite and rally his fellow Catholics who were crushed by tyranny and torn by internal dissension. He was misunderstood, misrepresented, accused of heresy and ambition. Even appeals to the pope brought no response. "For my sins I seem to be unsuccessful in everything."

Saint Basil the Great was tireless in pastoral care. He preached twice a day to huge crowds, built a hospital that was called a wonder of the world—as a youth he had organized famine relief and worked in a soup kitchen himself—and fought the prostitution business.
