Meditation - Do Not Judge

Let us dwell for a while on that particular sin which Our Lord emphasizes specially — the sin of judging others.

The human heart is God's secret, we simply cannot know it; yet how readily we make judgements and impute motives. We feel absolutely sure of things, we get upset or feel angry, we fall into lots of other sins because we have allowed ourselves to judge.

No matter how obvious it seems to us, remember we simply cannot know another's motivations. All we are saying in fact is that if I did such and such it would be for these reasons, therefore these reasons must be hers, too.

The hidden sin of judging, so common, so little regarded, is a tremendous obstacle to God's love. Because it is secret, because it seems such a natural thing to do, because we feel we see things aright, we have no contrition, our consciences remain untroubled. Whereas a thing of less moral significance which is obvious to ourselves and others can rack us with guilt feelings which we mistake for real sorrow.

Contrition means 'never again.' 'With all my heart I renounce this habit. I will examine myself on it daily...honestly, ruthlessly...'

Plenteous grace with thee is found

Grace to cleanse from every sin.

Let the healing streams abound.

Make and keep me pure within.

(From Jesus lover of my soul v. 4. Charles Wesley)

Can we trust the Gospels? Were these accounts written centuries later or by individuals with firsthand knowledge of Jesus? What about the so-called "lost gospels," such as the Gospel of Thomas? Get the answers to these questions and many more! Join us as we go through the video Bible study lecture series by Dr. Brant Pitre, The Case for Jesus. In this series, Dr. Pitre examines why the Gospels are reliable sources of information and looks at the historical evidence that backs up this claim.

Sacred Heart School News

Sacred Heart School had its first soccer game of the season. We played Waynesboro there Monday, March 6. Our team played really well but lost 2-1. Coach Miller and the team have been working very hard, and their work is paying off. The game with South Lawrence scheduled for Thursday was postponed because of rain. Our next soccer game will be at home against Waynesboro on Tuesday, March 21. Come out and see our new soccer field behind Calvary Cemetery.

A highlight of the week was the visitor SHS had on Thursday. Mrs. Schumacher brought a baby lamb for the Pre-K students, but the lamb visited each classroom. Visit our Facebook page to see pictures.

Friday, March 10, was the last day of the third nine-week grading period. Report cards will go home on Thursday, March 23, and parent-teacher conferences will be on Friday, March 24. The school will dismiss at 1:00 P.M. and the conferences will begin shortly after dismissal.

We will celebrate World Down Syndrome Day on Tuesday, March 21. We encourage the students, faculty, and staff to "Rock Your Socks" by wearing brightly colored mismatched socks.

The IOWA standardized tests and the ARK (Assessment of Religious Knowledge) tests will begin on March 21 and conclude on Friday, March 31.

Father Ryan High School invited our third through eighth graders to their spring production of "The Lion, the Witch, and the Wardrobe." The students will be attending this on Thursday, March 23.

Spring Break is March 13-17. We hope everyone has a safe and fun break.
